New Globe executive

ticipation in "Operation 91" the Variety Show performed at John Elliott in celebration of the Georgetown and District Hospital's 30th Anniversary, Globe members look forward to September when rehearsals commence for their 10th Anniversary Show in November, "My Fair Lady." Anyone interested in becoming involved in this production is asked to call Carolyn Hooper at 877-1141. (Photo submitted)

Honored by Globe

At its recent Annual General Meeting, Georgetown Globe Productions was happy to select four members to receive Honorary Life Memberships in recognition of their time, talent and dedica-

Mike Iles of Streetsville wasn't too sure he liked being licked by this one-year-old Tibetan Yak which was one of the main attractions for kids at the exotic petting zoo at Pioneer Days in Georgetown Saturday. The yak, along with other exotic animals like a llama, tiger, cougar and Vietnamese pot-bellied pig are owned by the Limehouse business, Tiger Paw. (Herald photo)
