

Five Mariners show some team dedication

Sunday evening ... What do Clem and Mike Giusto, Eustace Collins, Grant Richardson and Steve Robbins have in common this day? Why, they are the only Mariners team players to have shown for practice this morning. And, on such a beautiful morning. Some of the lads had a legitimate reason for absence but not many, not many.

Yes, a lovely evening also and just returned from Oakville and a senior women (i.e. over 18 years) Ontario Cup tie between the home teams and Glanbrook Express. I call the girls my team as most of the team are the ones who went West and won the National Championships, without my help I may add. Of course, Georgetown's Julie Ross was in evidence, another reason for dropping in at Shell Park.

Ross, small in stature, strong and skilful on the ball plays, astonishingly, is the central striker. She was introduced midway through the first half and proceeded to put on a one player destruction course with several runs at goal with shots, and scored twice in ten minutes.

Oakville are a team with skill, strength, size and determination and should go far in the cup. The Express did not quite live up to their team name although playing well in their own defensive third their moves broken down before the halfway line. 6-0 to Oakville did not flatter the scoreline at all.

The under 14 boys squad from town met Burlington at Cedarvale in midweek and lost 1-3, I believe. This was a vast improvement upon the result of the previous match between the teams - some 10 goal difference then. The locals had a strong goalie and a small and very efficient sweeper/marker in the heart of the defence.

The second goal came from a set piece free kick from the edge of the penalty area. The defenders left the smallest defender to mark the tallest forward and no one covering the goalpost behind the goalie. The ball was floated over the 'keeper and, yes, the tall attacker had a free header and the ball went in easily. A lesson to be learned. I trust.

The team played well and kept the visitors on their toes with some good tackling where it counted, in front of the area. Clearances were first timed away out of trouble. Most attacks broken down in front of goal yet the lads played well and kept their heads up at all times.

The CSL is in a one division format this season and our local interest, Gary Morrow, leads us to look at the Steelers record to date. The team has a few different faces in the lineup and a new coach from last season. The team sports a fairly even statistic throughout. Played eight, won four - lost four with 14 goals for 15 against. The last result was a 2-1 loss to new franchise, Nova Scotia who have yet to lose a game.

The 'big' three team tourney in Toronto recently almost became a fiasco. Benfica, AC Milan and an all-star team were due to play at Exhibition Stadium.

The visitors were well aware of the astro-turf situation. However, the previous day event left the surface very uneven and the teams refused to play and the games were switched to Varsity at virtually the last minute. Not a good advert for the league, although not their fault. The longest serving commissioner, Dale Barnes, formerly of TSN, has left the scene.

Inter County continues to throw surprises in the results and standings. United gave Merseyside, leaders, a 3-2 loss with a last minute goal at Meadowglen last Wednesday. The first half was evenly played and Mersey took the lead with the home team defence appealing - incorrectly I thought - for offside. Eagles defeated Acton for the second week in succession, by one goal, or so we were informed. However, later we discovered the result was a 1-1 tie.

Winchester lost 0-5 to Meteor - where did the home team players go? When Mariners played them, twice the Arms had a full squad. Talking of Mariners, a backs to the wall showing gave the lads a 1-0 win over Marlin Cock and Pheasant, to give the home team its full title.

In the second division, leaders Milton lost to Ajax at home by 3-0, a good and encouraging result for Ajax. Blazers, heroes last week, lost 1-3 to Alcott at Celtic, their first league win. Stingers lost at Old Triangle 0-2 and Gunners won 1-0 at Laurentians.

Atom Soccer girls keeping action hot

Week of June 17th

Water bottles and watermelons had a workout this week at the Girls Under 10 Atom Soccer games.

There was a little breeze at Cedarvale for the 30 degree evening weather. Green Hornets and Red Tim Horton Donuts were evenly matched in a game with lots of hustle.

There was good positional play by Green players Brianne Evers-Jordan, Courtney Evers-Jordan and Rachel McBride. Kerri Nielsen played her first game for Red Donuts with good team playing by Meghan Gogan, Deirdre McGee and Katie McIlveen. Cason Buikema gets thanks for referring this close game with a 0-0 score.

Millieres TV Golden Bullets and Team No. 5 played an exciting game with a final score of 2-1 for Team No. 5. Annie Schaefer scored a nice set of goals for her side, but Golden Bullets kept up a strong defense by getting the ball up to the forwards and Kirstin Boyle got a good yellow goal in the final quarter on a major breakaway.

Kristin Boyle, Jacque Bajic and Melanie Adams were noteworthy for the Millieres TV Golden Bullets. Helping the goal scorer Annie Schaefer this time for Team No. 5 were Jodie Armstrong, Sarah Czerwinski and Jenny Zomer.

Dutch Nurseries Blue Sharks team and Purple Municipal Trust team played a slower game this week. Purple player Bethan Elliott got a breakaway in the third quarter but it was deflected neatly by Blue Shark Katherine Weston.

Another breakaway by Municipal trust player Rachel Bryan-Maloney was brilliantly saved by Dutch Nurseries goalie Kristina Zelek, Jenny Culbert and Laura Page.
