

Leaders in training program

ship development program for the junior leaders of the Recreation and Parks Department of Halton Hills. After a week of training, these junior leaders will be volunteering to assist the leaders in the department's summer camps. (Herald photo)

Track stars shine

Three Georgetown teenagers have been selected to compete in the under-17 track and field Royal Canadian Legion Championship.

At the Royal Canadian Legion District B Track and Field Championship, held Saturday at Woodland's High School in Mississauga, three athletes from Georgetown District High School qualified to compete at the Legion Championship July 12 and 13 at the University of Windsor.

Leading the way was 17-year-old Scott Hobbs who took first in the triple jump with a distance of 13.29 meters. He also placed first in the long jump with a 6.28 meter leap.

Matt Brain, 15, placed first in the under-15 high jump with a distance of 1.75 meters. A 37.72 meter throw landed him second spot in the javelin throwing event and he was second in the 200 meter run with a time of 25.3 seconds.

Taking second in the long jump, leaping 5.85 meters, was 16-year-old Matt Zuraw.

Top place winners at the Legion Championship in Windsor will qualify to compete at the National Royal Canadian Legion Championships in August at York University.

Scott Hobbs will also compete in the National Junior Championships this weekend in Winnipeg.

Other Georgetown teenagers who did well during last weekend's District B Championships were 17-year-old Ryan Trant who took first in the 1500 meter race walk with a time of 10 minutes flat, Vanessa Doig, 15, who placed second, with a time of 15.7 seconds, in the 80 meter hurdle, and Kevin McMurtry, 16, who walked away with second place honours in the 1500 meter race walk (10.49 minutes flat) and the 400 meter hurdle (1.04 minutes).

Senior soccer

Georgetown Falcons Senior Mens Soccer team earned its second tie of the second last Sunday afternoon in Mississauga. The Falcons fielded just enough players (11) against a full Mississauga Classic side at Der-ryside Park.

The lone Falcons marker came from Darryl Bartlett - who took a perfect centre pass from Derek Oram.

Classic struck back using their speed and great midfield play.

The Falcons were missing two starting forwards and a mid-fielder for the game. All but one will be back for their next game which is tonight. At press time the score was not available.
