

Celebrating a century

Gilbert English is 100-years-old, but he's still got enough spunk to joke about some of the old friends in this picture that Royal Canadian Legion, Branch 120 member, Nellie Bell showed Mr. English at his

Under the knife

Dr. Allstair MacIntosh with wife Christine may not be a surgeon, but he knew how to cut his birthday cake at the birthday bash his family threw him for his 70th birthday. The well-known doctor received guests at his internal medicine office and home on McIntyre Crescent Sunday. Dr. MacIntosh has been a doctor for 48 years and practised in Georgetown for 37 years.
