Capital Ford 5,
Royal Pizza 2

Jim Lilly went three for three with two RBIs as Capital Ford broke a sixth inning 1-1 tie to score four runs and beat Royal Pizza 5-2. A combination of a Keith Gillett double and a Gord Higgins triple in the sixth helped to put the game away.

Defensively, Nick Boere, John Finlay and Jerry Hills helped shut down the Royals. Rich Lorito and John Curran hit triples and had an RBI each in a losing cause. Jim Lawrence came up with a nice move as he made an unassisted double play.

Elks Club 10,
Living Lighting 7
Doug McMullen, Mark Wilson and Scott Laverty led the way with home runs as Elks Club defeated Living Lighting in a well-played game by both teams. Ken McMullen started the third inning off with a single, which led to a six run rally to take the lead for the rest of the game.

Steve Lee hit a two run homerun in the fourth inning while Jim Akers went two for three. Living Lighting is still looking for its first win and it will come soon as the team is starting to play good ball.

Optimist 11, Random 7

Optimist took command of this win, sending 12 batters to the plate in the first inning and scoring eight times. Brian Ashbee, Brian Getty and Ashley each scored twice for Optimist and Mac Crabbe played some great defence at first base, adding a double.

Claude Guignard and Bob Morrow each homered for Random Car Club with Steve Burns adding an RBI double. Good defensive plays by Danny Anderson and Bob Morrow kept Random close in the late innings.

Kinsmen 18, Lions Club 2

Kinsmen put the game away early, scoring nine runs in the first two innings. Ron Lefebvre led the Kinsmen onslaught, reaching base five times, and scoring four runs. Paul Herron homered in the second and cashed in four RBIs.

Brian Shirliffe and Bryan Whittaker each had three RBIs with Whittaker banging out three doubles. Lions Club couldn't keep up with Bryan Whittaker's fine pitching, scoring single runs in the fourth and fifth innings.

Firemen 9,
Newfoundland Club 7

Firemen batted around in the second inning scoring seven times. Ed Pearce did most of the damage with a home run off the center fielder's glove. All Firemen were hitting as each batter reached base.

Newfies made the game close by scoring two runs in the bottom of the seventh but it wasn't enough to put out Firemen's hot bats. Ron Myers, Paul James and Tony Sheppard each scored twice in a losing cause.

Park Lincoln 10, Kendale Mechanical 8

Park pulled out a win to tie Kendale for first place in Division B. Park scored nine of its 10 runs with two out. Heath Lockhurst, Ken Sproule and Chris MacDonald each scored twice for Park in a winning effort. Heath Lockhurst ended Kendale's late charge making a diving catch on a line drive for the final out of the game.

In a losing effort, Sam Moore and Bob McLeod had three hits each while Dave Parent hit a two run towering shot over the left field fence. Bob "Boomer" McDonald went three for three.
