

Say No to Drugs

Toronto teen rep Shelley Oake of the "Say no to drugs" campaign was on hand Monday afternoon at Halton Hills Mayor Russ Miller's office in the Civic Centre to present him with a petition with over 50 signatures to declare Monday, "Say No to Drugs Day." The signatures were collected in one hour at

Clarification

In last Wednesday's edition of The Herald, it was stated in the Money Matters section that a new fruits and vegetable market on Main Street in Georgetown, G.T. Paradise, is located beside the Bank of Commerce. In actual fact, this new business is located beside Municipal Trust at 30 Main Street. The Herald regrets any inconvenience this may have caused.
