

Soccer Mariners share lead with Merseyside

The column had a week's rest, with your scribe away in Ohio for his annual golf tourney with General Motors Corp. The results were the same: almost useless. However, an enjoyable time in lively Cleveland, the Riverside area, known as the Flats, is very lively indeed. The weather was superb.

It is back to normality and the local, and otherwise, scene. I am not quite sure how the following has happened, but it has. Mariners are tied for first place with Merseyside in the first division of the Inter County. Meteor and United are not far behind. At the beginning of the season, Mariners could not have dreamed of being in this position, having dwindled in the lower regions of the division for the past few years.

United have opened up the division with another good result against Mersey, a 1-1 tie two weeks ago. This, coupled with a 1-0 win over the top team earlier has actually meant the other challengers have been kept in the race. As I indicated a few weeks ago, United have been quietly putting a good season together.

Villa also gave Mersey a good run for their money only going down by the odd goal in seven after leading with some 20 minutes to go. Villa then blotted their copybook a little in withdrawing from the field in Streetsville eight minutes from the end of last Wednesday's game. The appointed game officials did not show and a stand in was agreed upon. Somehow matters went out of whack towards the end, with Marlin leading 4-0, and the Villa coach withdrew his players, I understand.

match and pace and beauty in accomplishing the win.

The only second division results handed in to me came from Ajax. Firstly, the local club defeated Old Triangle in a make up game 4-2, which is a fair showing considering Triangle's results so far. Then the lads defeated league leaders, Blazers, by 2-1 and Laurentians 2-0 for a nice string of victories.

This Wednesday evening has Stingers vs. Old Triangle at Alcott at 7:00 p.m., followed by Ajax vs. Milton. Mariners are at home again, this time to Villa, who are likely to provide strong opposition, kick-off 8:45 p.m.

Eagles, travel to Marlin for a late start. Meteor and United were due at Meadowglen at 7:00 p.m. The game has been postponed until Friday I understand. Blazers visit Celtic in Mississauga.

Next Monday in the Ladies league CRSC United are at Alcott to host Georgetown No. 1 and No. 2 are at Meadowglen against Bolton.

You may often be able to identify a successful tourney with two items, one hosted by a drinking establishment, that is, Cars remaining in the car park, sensible drivers and/or friends of drivers and the number of hangovers the day after. Such was the case at the George and Dragon annual classic fun tourney at the weekend. George sponsored three soccer teams and several other sporting sides in the community.

Ladies champion

Gloria Sinclair (left) is congratulated by runnerup Gail MacIntyre after she was announced the overall ladies champion of a three day golf championship held at the North Halton Golf and Country Club on Monday. The two ladies played one hole of golf in the playoffs to determine the winner. Sinclair finished with a score of 228 over three days. (Herald photo)
