

Community Scholarship winner

Halton District Women's Institute is pleased to announce the 1991 winners of the scholarship and bursary awards.

Jennifer Livock, daughter of James and Elizabeth Livock of Oakville is the winner of the Dr. Ethel Chapman Scholarship. She has completed over 30 4-H projects, worked with the members' council and went to Alberta on a 4-H exchange. She has represented Halton in the Silver Dollar Competition, was a member of the "Go For The Gold" team, participated in the Halton/Peel 10 steps to community action and was the 1990 champion judge.

At White Oaks Secondary School, Jennifer was a member of the Science Club, Pep Team and Students Against Drunk Driving. For two years she worked on the yearbook. In her community, Jennifer is a member of the Junior Farmers and Muans United Church. She enjoys swimming, biking and collecting cow collectables and is presently the Halton Dairy Princess.

In the fall Jennifer will be taking Agriculture Business at the University of Guelph.

The winner of the Halton District Bursary is Heather Dubuc, daughter of Robert and Betty Dubuc of R.R. 1 Limehouse. At Acton High School she was a member of the swim and basketball teams. She was also active in the environmental club and was president of both the Students Against Drunk Driving and the Graduation Committee. Her personal hobbies include reading and knitting and she works at local stores.

Heather will be attending the University of Toronto this fall in an Honors Bachelor of Arts course and hopes to eventually become a high school teacher.

Congratulations Jennifer and Heather.
