

The gift of life

Historical Society meeting

The Ontario Historical Society invites all heritage and cultural organizations to attend a Good Housekeeping Workshop in your area. The next workshop in this series, being held throughout the province in 1991, will take place on Thursday, August 29 from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. at the Guelph Civic Museum, 6 Dublin Street South in Guelph.

These two-hour workshops, sponsored by The Ontario Historical Society, provide historical, heritage and cultural, non-profit organizations with practical advice on how to become incorporated as a non-profit corporation in Ontario, how to stay incorporated and other good housekeeping matters often overlooked by volunteer organizations. Each session also includes tips on how to apply for charitable tax status.

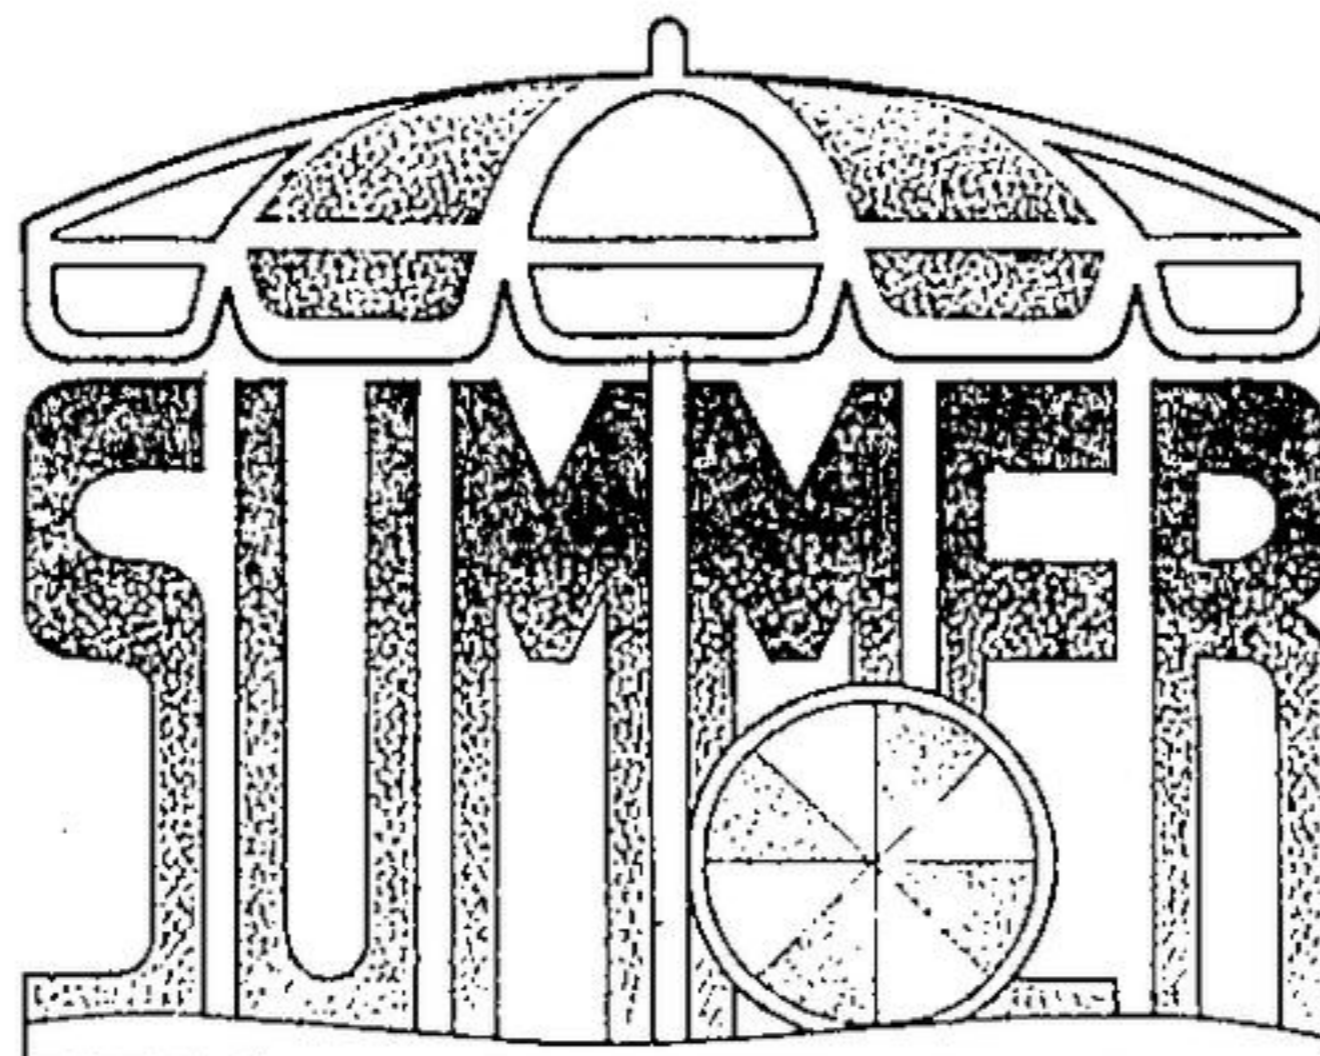

Admission to these workshops is free so plan now to attend or send at least two members of your executive so that you are sure that your house is in good order.

For further information on this workshop and others in the series please contact: Lois Chipper, The Ontario Historical Society, 5151 Yonge Street, Willowdale, Ontario, M2N 5P5. (416) 226-9011, Fax (416) 226-2740.
