Ladies teams have slender week

It was a slender week of victories for the Gordon Alcott Tennis Club teams, especially the ladies, which earned just three points in games against Bramalea and White Oaks.

The Ladies "A" played Bramalea and came up with two points. Barb Reiger and Stacey Hurley in three sets won 6-2, 3-6, 6-1. Ann Kennedy and Chris Steen won 7-5, 6-4. Eileen Saville and Ouida Graville lost in three sets 3-6, 6-2, 3-6. Audrey Jans and Deb Koster lost in three sets 4-6, 6-4, 1-6.

The Ladies "C" played White Oaks and came up with one point. Margaret Macenko and Mary Hughes had 2-6, 1-6. Agnes Lawrence and Gloria Sargent won 6-4, 6-4. Francine Dembie and Maureen Burgoyne 0-6, 2-6. Linda Osso and Norma Maynard in three sets lost 6-7, 6-2, 2-6. This concludes the schedule of matches for 1991 for the ladies. Today (Wednesday) is the Ladies Wind Up Round Robin Pot Luck Luncheon and swim, starting at 9:30 a.m.

The Mixed "B" played Castlemore and took five points. Kevin Neill and Bernie Kent won 7-6, 6-2. Rory Kennedy and Ken Kavanagh won in three sets 6-0, 5-7, 6-0. Dean Jackson and Mike Hurley won 6-3, 6-1. Stacey and Don Hurley won 6-4, 6-3. Chris Steen and Rene March won 6-1, 6-2. Ouida Graville and Norma Maynard lost 4-6, 5-7.

The Mixed "C" played Brampton and took three points. John Dalleson and Al Robitaille lost 4-6, 3-6. Bill Kent and Andy Paschalis lost 2-6, 5-7. Ed Rieger and Jim Morwick won 7-5, 6-3. Audrey and Murray Jans won 6-3, 7-5. Joanne and Ed Van Den Hoek in three sets won 6-3, 3-6, 7-6. (7-5). Sandy Lewis and Barb Rieger lost 2-6, 2-6.

The Adult Singles and Doubles Tournament is postponed and will be tried again for September 6-8 along with the mixed. The Junior tournament will be held Aug. 16-18. September 4 is the House League Wind-Up.

Safe or out?

An Acton Red Hots second base player puts the tag on the Acton A.Z. Aces runner who is appealing for a safe call at Jim Bailey Park in Ballinafad on Saturday. Eight teams were involved in a two day tournament, held to raise money to build a soccer field at the park. The Ballinafad Jim Dandies won the championship, while Red Hots took home the consolation trophy. (Herald photo)

HERALD SPORTS SHORTS

T-ball losses

Elliott Custom Brokers Rep T-Ball team met the two top teams during the last two games of the season recently.

On July 30, Erin Mills were victorious by a score of 28-13. Mathew Seaman and Kyle Hotham were heavy hitters. Jeff Martin, Kyle Findlay and Jason Angyal displayed their best defensive skills. Ryan Van Blitterswyk helped score several runs.

On August 6, the league's top team, Milton, defeated the local squad 29-10. Cameron Sisnett was chosen player of the game. Helping out Georgetown were Robbie Alcorn and Matt Tales while his brother Greg slid into first base like a pro.

Kevin Binsell provided his video camera fans with superb running skills. Chris Corpilas also played well. Coach Brian Hannah was delighted that Andrew Oesch and Marc Monchamp had perfect attendance records for the season.

Golf winners

On August 5, Gloria Sinclair once again retained her crown as Club Champion at North Halton Golf and Country Club. With a decisive margin, Sinclair led the field in the three consecutive days of competition. Runner-up in the Championship Flight was Gail MacIntyre-Howcroft.

"B" Flight was captured by

Gail Finlayson who won over Shirley McDermot in a one hole playoff. The "C" Flight winner was Linda Astrauskas followed by Jacqueline Charlebois. "D" Flight was won by Kathryn Latimer with runner-up Kathleen Wilford.

The Winner of the "Seniors" who also had a fine finish in the Championship Flight, was Marilyn Medlock. The Diamond Lil Champion, determined by retrogression due to a tie, was Eileen Cunningham over Gladys Coldwell.

In her first "ladies" competition, junior Christine Carter came Third in the Championship Flight.
