GEORGETOWN BASEBALL ASSOCIATION TYKE LEAGUE RESULTS

AUGUST 4
Jim and Pat Akers
 Countrywide Tigers 11
 J.V. Clothing Blue Jays 4

Tigers seem to be the only team able to ruffle Blue Jays' feathers. Tigers' pitchers Brian Lipp, Chris Moss, Matt Rutherford, and Preston White combined with great catches by Matt Jones, Trevor Laforet and Trevor McBain to hold the usually high-flying birds to four runs, including a double by Andrew Peden.

On the busy Jays defence, Eoin Smith snared a fly ball out and later came up with a fine throw to Peden at first for a second out. A Topher Baker to Matt McMullen loss accounted for another out at the plate. The loss was only the second of the season for Jays; the first was also administered by Tigers, a 12-11 contest on June 18.

Halton Credit Union A's 10
Mike Reed D.J. Angels 15
 A's ended a four-game slump, defeating Angels on the strength of a solo home run by Tommy Allen, Nick Johnston was excellent behind the plate in what Coach Williams described as the beginning of A's run for the top.

Blake Leavitt Expos 15
Beaver Lumber Mets 3
 Expos outpowered Mets in a team effort which saw some players credited with RBIs: Ed Akorn (2), Simon Ford (1), Rob May (1), Jeff Meinen (2), John Murray (1), Joel Springer (2), Jess Viens (3), Matt Walker (2), Dan Whitton (2), Ford, Meinen, Springer, and Walker, along with Adam Stoyles, composed the pitching team which held Mets to three runs.

AUGUST 8
Jim and Pat Akers
 Akers Countrywide Tigers 17
 George and Dragon Yankees 7

Tigers 17 runs included RBIs by Matt Jones (2), Chris Moss (3), Matt Rutherford (3), Adam Slachta (2), Jason VanMeijel (2), and Preston White (3). Moss and Jason Jack limited Yankee opportunities with key defensive plays while Rutherford allowed only one run in his two innings on the mound. Brian Lipp held Yanks scoreless in his two frames.

Halton Credit Union A's 10
Beaver Lumber Mets 9
 Mets opened scoring in the first and appeared to be in control. With two runs in and bases loaded, A's called on pitcher Richard Cunningham who struck out three straight to control the damage. A's took the lead 3-2 in the second, and Mets were on top again 4-3 by the end of the third.

Mike Madill held Mets to a single run in the fourth and claimed a double in his turn at the plate. The inning ended with A's in charge again, 7-5. Mets were able to drive in four more in the final inning, but A's managed three of their own to hold the lead.

Blake Leavitt Expos 17
Mike Reed D.J. Angels 9
 Expos were hot all week as nine batters claimed RBIs again on Thursday. Jeff Meinen homered, Jesse Viens tripled, Simon Ford swatted one double, and Adam Stoyles claimed a pair.

Angels managed nine against some spectacular field work: Joel Springer threw a long, on-target ball from center for an out at the plate and John Murray, Ed Akorn, and Matt Walker teamed for a handsome right field - second base - third base relay.

UPCOMING GAMES
AUGUST 15
 J.V. Clothing Blue Jays vs. Halton Credit Union A's at the Armouries; Akers' Countrywide Tigers vs. Mike Reed D.J. Angels at the Barn; Blake Leavitt Expos vs. George and Dragon Yankees at Harrison.

AUGUST 20
 George and Dragon Yankees vs. Mike Reed D.J. Angels at the Armouries; Halton Credit Union A's vs. Blake Leavitt Expos at Kennedy; J.V. Clothing Blue Jays vs. Beaver Lumber Mets at Centennial.

GIRLS SOCCER UNDER 10 ATOMS
 A setting sun and an overcast sky did not dampen the thunder of running feet when Green Hornets played Milleries TV Golden Bullets in Under 10 Atom Girls soccer last week. The game was scoreless until the third quarter with good positional play from both teams when Allie Barclay kicked one in for Hornets. Green was playing short and Golden Bullets really worked the Green goalie.

Julie Thompson made a great save with her chest for Golden Bullets and the Green goalie made a good save with her long sleeves entangled around the ball. This exciting game had a final score of 1-0 for Green Hornets with players Allie Barclay, Brianne Evers-Jordan and Rachel McBride being noteworthy.

Milleries TV Golden Bullets cited Paula Gougeon for playing forward, Becky Sinnaeve for playing excellent defense and Ellen Smith for helping out all over. While Green Hornets coach is on holidays, manager Karen McBride is coaching well for the first time in this new role.

Purple Municipal Trust team held Tim Horton Red Devils to a 3-0 score. The goal scorers for Red Devils were Faith Malinovsky, Deirdre McKee and Charlene Roche with one each in the third quarter on rebounds. Also playing well for Red Devils were Jennifer Duke, Shaylyn Rypstra and Katie McIlveen.

Purple players didn't venture into Red Devil territory often but challenged with a few breakaways in the last quarter. Playing well for Municipal Trust were Leah Bulkema, Alison Hawes and Sarah Williams. Leandro Sperduti blew a clean decisive whistle referring for the two games.

Cedarvale Field looked blue when Remax Realty Cool Blues and Dutch Nurseries Blue Sharks faced off at center field. Cool Blues scored four goals with Cindy Benner getting two and Annie Schaefer and Erin Shillington getting one each.

Blue Sharks remained resolute and late in the game, Mindy Culbert kicked one in for Sharks. Noteworthy players for Sharks were Kristina Zelek who ran well, Marianne Page who played steady defense and Whitney Young who played well in goal.

Remax Realty Cool Blues goal scorers played well as did Jodie Armstrong, Angie Crane and Sarah Czerwinski. Thanks go to Geoff Sketcher for refereeing.

GEORGETOWN GIRLS UNDER 18 BANTAM SOCCER

AUG. 6
 Georgetown Challengers 3
 Acton 1

Tough defense by Georgetown Challengers resulted in a 3-1 win over Acton No. 1.

Early in the game, Tracy Metler scored on a left-footed kick after a long pass from Gail Morgan. Another long pass, this time from Deanna Guignard led to a Lorraine Mann goal to make it 2-1 at the half.

Early in the second half, Guignard took a corner kick, the ball was headed by Tracy Metler towards the net and Mann scored an opportunistic goal, her second of the game. Late in the match, Acton scored a goal after a lot of confusion in the Georgetown goal crease.

Georgetown Red 2
Milton Cooperators 2
 Milton played a super game, playing shorthanded. Noteworthy players are Steph O'Brien (consistent defense) Yvonne Moore and Ruth Burrows, who kept plugging and should have been given a couple of goals for their efforts.
