

Under seven soccer still suffering shortage

On July 31 the girls under 7 soccer league was still playing soccer with depleted numbers due to the summer holidays.

White Sox broke out on a scoring streak with six goals against Ramrock Electric Blue Bells. Scoring for White Sox were Jody

Stapleton, Kimberly Nielsen, and Astrid-Marie Huibers with two goals each. Contributing to this win with excellent play were Shannon Reynolds, Regan Boyle and Kelly Sproul. Playing well for Ramrock Electric Blue Bells were Maria Simone, Michele Boere and Jennifer Capstick.

Electric Blue Bells 4-0 with goals scored by Ashleigh Dunlop, Susanne Leferink and two goals by Andrea Lootsma. Playing well for Golden Flyers were Katie VanRavens, Jill Pembleton and Melissa Williams.

Lacrosse Rams lead series

Acton Tim Hortons Novice Rams lacrosse team came up with a big effort to win its first game of a four game Round Robin series with Guelph No. 2 and Fergus.

Three Tyke Rams were called up to play and Chelsea Young, Ryan Weatherall and Mathew Wolfer looked right at home, giving a tremendous effort. Scoring for Acton was Ron McCaslin (4), Marty Gordon (2). Assists were from goalie John Van Sickle, Mathew Wolfer and Matt Bodin.

Constant rushes by Noah Malinosky and Joel Petkoff often kept Guelph on the defensive. Some strong defensive work by Stephen Monaghan, Chase Trull and Jamie Reynolds kept the rebound to a minimum. Key penalty killing by Vishal Kassie and Mathew Bodin wiped out the man power play advantages of Guelph.

The numbers were really down for Wendy's Fireflies who were lent players from the Golden Flyers to play the game. Playing with only five players per side, Golden Flyers won the game 4-3 over Wendy's Fireflies. Many thanks to the parents who ran this game for Wendy's.

On August 8, Golden Flyers won its game against Ramrock
