

Aerobics session upcoming

By BETTY SOJKA

Watch those mail boxes in the next couple of weeks. Flyers are being distributed, that give all the details on the Aerobics session beginning in September. After an active summer, what better way to keep that shape!

Last week's Jim Dandies game against Remax got off to an uncertain start. With only 8 players, the outfielders were short handed. A low score was held by both teams until the Jim

Ballinafad News

Dandies changed their hitting strategy. Remax outfielders were remarkable catching all the balls hit in the air. It was those hard hit balls on the ground, that changed the tide, and ended the game with a win for the Dandies. The ladies participated in a tournament held for charity, this past weekend in Georgetown. A practice followed on Monday, with a game on Thursday against the Hillsburg Panthers.

The monthly newsletter is being compiled this week. Anyone wish items of news are asked to call Betty Sojka at 853-3691.

California winner

Visiting relatives in Acton recently was eight-year-old Elan Ghazal from California who here, loads his water gun which he won in a coin-tossing competition Thursday at the wading pool of Prospect Park in Acton. Games of skill and chance plus a day of relaxing swimming were all part of 'Beach Party Day' held Thursday at the pool. (Herald photo)
