

Special setting for Norval bride

By KAY WILSON

A pretty December wedding took place at Glad Tidings Pentecostal Church in Burlington last December.

Natalie Mary, daughter of Henry and Carrolle Golow, R. R. 2 Norval, was united in marriage to the Rev. Daniel Ernst Rogge of Kitchener.

The church was decorated in a Christmas setting, with the Rev. Ken Gill of Calgary, former Assistant Pastor of Queensway Cathedral, Toronto officiating the ceremony.

A cousin of the bride, Daniel Hynek of Oakville was organist.

Cathy Masulka of Ajax sang "Somewhere In The World" during the Presentation of the Bride. The bride given in marriage by her parents, looked lovely in a Poie de Save floor length gown of winter white. The bodice and sleeves were appliqued and embroidered with silver bugle beading, pearls and crystals. The peplum skirt fell into a cathedral length train, appliqued and embroidered with crystals. A bussell with an inserted rosette trimmed with pearls fell into a three tier peplum.

The bride wore a wreath-like head piece trimmed with crystals, that held a finger tip veil with blusher. She carried a Norwegian white fox muff with red calla lilies, white steffinotis and evergreen. Melanie Golow of Toronto, a cousin of the bride was Maid of Honor. Bridesmaids were Darlene Higgins of Nanaimo B.C., and Brenda Rutledge Corynna, Ont. both cousins of the bride. Verena Lanove of Mississauga, sister of the groom and Suzanne Sibley of St. Catharines, friend of the bride.

The bridesmaids wore Victorian gowns of hunter green velvet and the acolytes wore matching gowns in crushed hunter green velvet, each accented with rosettes at the back. The acolytes were Jenny Santorelli and Melissa Santorelli, both of Kettleby and Amy Dixon of Brampton. They also carried white fox muffs with red Calla lilies, steffinotis and evergreen.

The best man was Constable David Nicholson of Kitchener, a friend of the groom. Groomsmen were Stephen Golow, brother of the bride, Ronald Rogge of Mississauga, brother of the groom, Stephen Peng of Kitchener a friend of the groom, Rev. James Stewart of Oakville friend of the groom, and Terry Talbot of Peterborough, friend of the groom.

All wore black tuxedos with black bow ties and cummerbands.

During the ring ceremony, "The Katina Brothers" from Tacoma, Washington, friends of the bride and groom sang "Ring of Love" composed by them for this occasion.

Arnold Geisler accompanied by Siefried Tepper sang "The Lord's Prayer" while Holy Communion was being served.

During the signing of the register, Terry Talbot sang "Household of Faith".

Following the ceremony, a finger food reception was held in the Fellowship Hall of the Glad Tidings church for the entire church family and guests.

A reception followed at Liuna Gardens in Winona for 312 guests. Cathy Masulka and Carrie Weiler (twin sisters and cousins of the bride, both of Ajax) acted as hostesses.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Carrolle Golow received the guests wearing an emerald green gown of chiffon and satin. She was assisted by the groom's mother, Mrs. Maria Rogge wearing a black and opalescent sequined gown with a full chiffon skirt.

Evangelist Richard Wilkerson, friend of the bride and groom, of Tacoma, Washington was Master of Ceremonies, Gospel Recording Artists, the Katina Brothers, set the mood for this festive occasion with an assortment of Christian love songs and Christmas favorites.

Honored guests at the wedding were the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Vera Golow of Toronto and the bride's great aunt, Mrs. Dorothy Masulka of Ajax.

Following a three week honeymoon in Florida, the couple have taken up residence at Glen Abbey, Oakville.

Rev. Daniel Rogge and his lovely new wife, Natalie, are presently pastoring at Glad Tidings Pentecostal Church in Burlington.

The happy couple

Special shower

A miscellaneous shower was held on August 11 at the home of Fred and Joan Barnes, R.R. 2, Georgetown. The shower was in honor of Joan's niece Kim Little and Murray Empringham's forthcoming marriage in September.

Over 50 members were present from the extended Harrop family. Alan and Jean Harrop, the brides grandparents, as well as Iva Nickolson and Edna Harrop, both aunts of the bride. Members of the Clare Ford and Roy Harrop families and the Hyatt, Cation and McClure families were present.

The brides' three aunts and their families, including the Barnes' family, Marie and Bill Wilson of Minesing, and Doreen and Harvey Burt and three daughters of R. R. 2, Acton.

The brides own family, her twin sister Kelly (the present Ontario Dairy Princess) and her brother Chris enjoyed the party too.

Kim is the daughter of Aileen (Harrop) and Barry Little of Markam, and Murray is the son of Doris Empringham and the late Mr. Empringham of Stouffville.

Many beautiful gifts were received, followed by a buffet luncheon.

Norval News

Annual corn roast

Pinegrove Community Club held their Annual Corn Roast on August 11, 1991 at the school and enjoyed the beautiful summer evening outdoors. An old iron kettle full of corn, hanging on a tripod over a wood fire soon had the corn cooked to a "t". Members sat around visiting, following the buffet table of corn, hot dogs with pie and ice cream.

Sincere sympathy

Sincere sympathy is extended to the family of John Murray Marshall of Georgetown, formerly of Norval, who passed away at the Georgetown and District Memorial Hospital on Friday, August 16, 1991.

Beloved husband of the late Mildred Caseley, and loving father of Ross Marshall and his wife Beverley of Brantford, and Jean and her husband David Harley of Georgetown. Loving grandfather of Steven Barnett and John and Robert Marshall.

Predeceased by brothers Tom and Jim.

John Marshall, in his 87th year, was a Norval resident for over 40 years. He had been retired in Georgetown for the last 12 years. John's parents died within two weeks of each other when he was only five years old.

He was raised by his grandmother Mrs. Tom (Jane) McMeekin.

John was a quiet man well liked by all, and would never speak his mind, unless he had something good to say. Being brought up by his Gramma McMeekin, you could see how his character was moulded in those early childhood years. He worked for several oil and gas companies as a truck driver, and always gave an honest days work for any job he took on.

Friends were received at the J.S. Jones and Son Funeral Home, Georgetown, on Sunday, August 18, 1-9 p.m., where funeral and committal service was held in the chapel on Monday at 2 p.m.

Interment was in Hillcrest Cemetery, Norval. In lieu of flowers, contributions to the Canadian Cancer Society would be appreciated.

Congratulations extended

Congratulations to Shannon Crawford of London, daughter of Bob and Elaine Crawford of Norval. Shannon returned to her parents home from Cuba, and the Pan American Games with a Gold and Silver medal in rowing.

In women's coxless fours, Shannon won a first, and again on Sunday finished second in women's pairs.

Coxless dictates that two sit in the port and two in the starboard end, and maintain their own course without a cox. Most competitions have a fifth person directing the course, while the other four do the rowing.

Shannon has been training for five years, three years competitively in London. Six women and 20 men trained and competed in the competition.

Shannon is a nurse, but presently plans to stay in training for another year.

A huge athletic complex was built specifically for the games, that will be turned into a housing complex. The Cuban people are very poor and still suffering from severe shortages in all types of everyday living, even more so since Russia has discontinued their trade deal.

Best wishes

Best wishes go out to Halton and Peel County Dairy Princesses, who will be competing at the C.N.E. this Friday and Saturday in the preliminaries of the Ontario Dairy Princess Competition.

Dawn Rowntree of Brampton will be competing this Friday and Jennifer Livock of Milton on Saturday. The competition will take place in the Fraser Pavilion of the Coliseum at 6:00 p.m.

Following the three nights of preliminaries with around 40 Princesses competing, and again the Semi Finals, the Finals will be held in the main ring of the Coliseum on Tuesday, August 27th.
