Meznic corrals Longhorns

Longhorns faltered in its quest to catch Dawgs for first place honors in the Georgetown Men's Flag Football League on Sunday at Georgetown District High School by losing 22-14 to Meznic Electric.

The second place team had recently been handling all comers until last weekend's match, even going as far as opening the scoring Sunday when Jim Lindsay pulled in a pass for a touchdown. However, Meznic tied the game 7-7 when Gary Lockwood got the major to end the first half.

Longhorns again pulled ahead with a touchdown from Bill Taylor, but Meznic refused to give up, again connecting with Gary Lockwood in the end zone. Later, Meznic's Rob Spiteri came through with six points and added with the two point conversion to Stu Lunn, wrapped up the victory.

The first game of the day, between Plus Welding and The Glen was defaulted because neither team had enough players to begin the match. Moldmasters and Oldtimers were ready to go, though Oldtimers showed more life than the opposition, winning 35-21.

Oldtimers got on the board first when Terry Caroux pulled in six points, followed by the single from Doug Pemberton. Moldmasters cut into that lead shortly after when Gino Colonico booted a field goal. Oldtimers increased its lead after Kevin Brown intercepted a Moldmasters pass, later leading to a touchdown by Scott Sanvido and another single by Pemberton.

Moldmasters fought back with six points from West Samis, but Oldtimers refused to let up, getting six points from Doug Stamp before halftime and another six after the break from Brian Beaumont, followed by a two point convert from Brown.

Moldmasters came back with a six point play by Glen McBride and another by Samis, but a major by Sanvido gave Oldtimers a comfortable margin of victory.

Dawgs maintained its first place position with another win, this time a 38-6 trouncing of M and M. A large reason for the success Dawgs have had this season is the strong commitment by its players, always showing up with the most bodies, enabling them to field a fresh squad all game.

Brent Ferguson got Dawgs first touchdown early in the game, with a two point convert by Alain Pellard. M and M kept things close early when Horace Thomas pulled in six for his team, but were unable to convert. Dawgs more than made up for that with a pair of touchdowns from John Egan and Brad Ferguson and two point converts from Brent Ferguson and Pat McKinnon.

In the second half, it was all Dawgs as Pellard caught two touchdown passes and Wayne Stasiulis got a two point convert.
