

Ontario Premier invited for ribbon-cutting ceremony

30 Years Ago

Ontario Premier Leslie M. Frost has been invited to be a special guest at a ribbon cutting ceremony which will officially open Georgetown's Main Street following repaving and new sidewalks. The ceremony is planned for the weekend of Sept. 9th and will probably be held in the early afternoon of Friday or Saturday that week. A ribbon cutting ceremony is planned with Mayor Hyde and other civic officials taking part.

The American Marietta firm is one step closer to locating in Georgetown. The firm, which has twice extended an option on a Delrex acreage, latterly until the end of August, has referred to their "Georgetown plant" in a letter to Mayor Hyde, part of which he read at Monday's council meeting.

The Mayor said things look very favorable and he has high hopes that the Marietta firm will be building in town within the next few weeks.

committee meeting, discussed ways of dealing with the problem. George (Mac) Herrington, a Limehouse resident who has been dog controller for several years, is giving up the job at the end of August.

ban delivery routes and rural routes are expected to be covered.

A final report on the size of the new municipal complex and where it's to go on the town's Steven's property won't be coming out until mid-August. Thursday night, consultants with F.J. Reinders and Associates Ltd. said they'll be putting together a draft report which will seek the Municipally-owned Properties Committee's approval before being published in a final version.

Alternative routes to Mountainview Road into Georgetown are to be identified and studied by Enterac Property Corporation. Last week, owner Bert Arnold told Halton Region's planning public works committee that his client is willing to expand their traffic impact study to include the area bounded by Trafalgar Road, Winston Churchill Boulevard, Steeles Avenue and Guelph Street.

It was Joe Clark in search of answers who visited MP John McDermid's Conservative riding of Brampton-Georgetown Tuesday. Prior to the tour of Varian Canada Incorporated on River Drive which highlighted his visit here, the federal Opposition leader sat down for lunch with editors and publishers of several Halton and Peel newspapers, as well as cable television officials.

Letter carriers and other non-striking postal workers in Acton and Georgetown are making special deliveries (Wednesday) of all social economy cheques: Family allowance, Canada Pension, Old Age Pension and superannuation cheques are being delivered throughout Halton Hills wherever possible. All ur-

Attempts to "Keep Terra Cotta Clean" by the Thursday Thimble Club, have had unexpected, and unwelcomed results. A spokesman for the club told the Herald that their latest project has hit a snag, due to misunderstanding by some district residents about its purpose. The club, a group of civic-minded women, who have done much for the village, recently installed three garbage drums at focal points near the Town Line bridge, and at the 5th and 6th Line intersections with 27 Sideroad.
