Limehouse softball Bantams Retain championship title

In the opening game of the Halton Rural Minor softball tournament Friday night against Rockwood, Harry Brown Excavating were able to come from behind in a tension filled 9-8 victory.

In a rain delayed game against Cheltenham Saturday morning, Limehouse scored nine against Cheltenham's four, moving on to the championship round. Cheltenham rallied with a 7-5 win, forcing a playoff game.

In the final game, Harry Brown Excavating, after falling behind 3-1 in the first inning, came on strong to score four in the fifth and one in the sixth, beating Cheltenham and winning a hard fought tournament 6-3, justifying its first place standing in the league, and repeating as champions.

Through the tournament there were many outstanding individual plays, as there are in all games, but every member of the team contributed to their successful season and they are: Eric Bodin (P), Jason Bouman (S.S.), Rob Brown (3 B.), Mike MacArthur (1 B.), Fred McDonald (L.F.), Chris Nolan (L.F.), David Osbourne (C), David Patey (C.F.), Don Patterson (1 B.), Derrick Robson (P), Ian Sinclair (C.F.), Sheldon Stuckless (2 B.), Jamie Willett (P), Kevin Willett (R.F.). Special thanks goes to Coach Mark Osbourne and his assistant Fred McDonald.

Kinsmen Girls Softball Pharmacy edges Pools 34-32

By DEE DEE HAYNES
Herald Special

As the summer months continue to drag on, the Kinsmen Girls Softball League is in high swing as the players continue their season in great form.

In the junior division, the Standard Products team outplayed Dunlop Insurance, 27-24, on August 15. Slamming in homeruns were: Amanda, Cristin and Marie of Dunlop and Laura Willis (3), Michelle Wiener, Sonia Moreland, and Katherine Leonard of Standard. Game stars were the home run hitters.

In the second match, Young's Pharmacy slipped past Nikki's Pools, 34-32. Danielle Malenfant, Megan McCracken (2), Lynn Hayes and Jessica Beaque were the home run hitters for Young's.

Game stars were Megan McCracken, Aimee Burns and Kati Moore of Young's and Danielle King and Tammy Walsh of Nikki's.

Moving up to the Intermediate Division, Pictures and Presents topped Elk's Lodge 19-16. Pictures and Presents player Carrie Schenk had the game's solo home run and was named game star, while Michelle Brooks of Elk's claimed the honours for her team.

Rounding out the play Optimist Club topped Dairy Queen by one run, 12-11. On the mound for Optimists were Karen Hannah and Karen Fairs, while Robin Ransom, Lisa White and Julie Bottomley split the duties for D.Q. Game stars were Bottomley of Dairy Queen and Karen Fairs of the Optimists.

Zone eight lacrosse title swept up by Acton Rams

Acton Novice Lacrosse Rams won the 'A' Division Zone Eight Championship in Guelph on August 19, sweeping the best of five series with three straight victories over Guelph I.

Rams took the first game handily 12-4 at home August 14, but the following night's game required two overtime periods before Richard Raju scored to win it 8-7. The final game, in Guelph August 19, featured a lot of hard and questionable checking by the hosts, but Acton refused to be drawn into any penalties, winning 6-3.

In game one, both Raju and Kyle Artem shared top honors, each getting five goals and two assists. Ryan Young played a strong game in net, allowing just two markers in the second period. Paul Withers and Shawn Weatherall were the other goal scorers for Rams.

Acton took the lead early in game two, with Jeff Newman, Raju and Weatherall giving their team a 3-2 margin. Both teams scored a pair in the second period, with Artem and Raju getting the markers. Raju followed with two more in the third period, but Guelph came back with three to force the overtime periods before Raju scored his fourth in a row.

In the third and deciding game, Artem took control of the scoring, getting a hat trick and an assist after Guelph had taken a 1-0 lead in the first period. Also scoring for Acton were Raju, Withers and Weatherall.

Rams went to Whitby on the weekend to play in the All-Ontario Provincial Playoffs, but results were unavailable at press time.

Raiders camp

Georgetown Jr. B Raiders executive had a good look at a lot of prospects at its hockey camp at Alcott Arena on the weekend as they prepare to put together its team for this season. So far, Raiders have signed seven players: Rob Doucette (right defence), John Williamson (right wing), Tom Viola (left defence), Marty Savoy (centre), Ian Ellis (right wing), Jamie Showers (right defence) and Duane Lewis (right wing). The team will be playing in an invitational tournament this weekend in Etobicoke and will be playing an exhibition game at home against Aurora on September 6 at 8:00 p.m. (Herald photo by Ben Dummett)

Men's Flag Football

Dawgs beat Welding 29-6 to clinch first

By ROBERT RISK

Dawgs clinched first place in the Georgetown Men's Flag Football League with a 29-6 win over Plus Welding on Sunday at Georgetown District High School, keeping them undefeated so far this season.

Longhorns, which had been in second for much of the year, dropped its second game in a row, losing 27-14 to M and M. In other games, Meznic Electric zapped Moldmasters 32-0 and Oldtimers squeaked by The Glen 16-15.

In the first game of the day, M and M got off to a quick start with an interception by Brad Finucan, who ran it in for a touchdown. Longhorns came right back with a major by Paul Allison and the convert by Dave Patterson gave the team a 7-6 lead.

M and M went ahead briefly

when Brad Finucan came through with six more points, but then Bill Taylor connected for a touchdown and the single from Patterson made it 14-12 for Longhorns.

The defence of Longhorns started to slip in the second half, with M and M scoring two touchdowns to earn the win. First, Mike Hurley got one of the big scores, followed up by a two point convert by Finucan and then Stew Hirst pulled in the other major.

Meznic rolled over Moldmasters in the next match, scoring 17 points in the first half and 15 in the second. Jeff Lockwood's feet earned the most individual points, booting three singles and a field goal before running in a convert. Gary Lockwood, Stu Lunn, Steve Grossman and Hal Hulme each had touchdowns.

In the closest game of the day, Oldtimers struck for 13 points in the first half, managing to hold off The Glen for a win. Point scorers for Oldtimers were unavailable at press time.

Dawgs dominated Plus Welding in the final match, with Mike Delguidise catching two point converts on touchdowns by Duane Wilson and Linus Stasiulis in the first half. Dave Clemens intercepted a pass early in the second half for a touchdown. Plus Welding's Darrel Weir got six points before Dawgs Alain Pellard's touchdown finished things up.

In the last week of regular season play on September 8, Longhorns will try to break up Dawgs undefeated string of victories. The quarter-finals are the following week, followed by the semi-finals on September 22 and the championship game on September 29.
