Arnies unbeaten streak ended

By LEANNE FOURNIER
Herald Special

Arnie's Body Shop's hopes of a perfect season were squashed August 18 by a pumped-up Burns Transport squad. Burns defeated Arnies 16-6 to move into a tie for first place.

CIBC Chargers took advantage of Mobile Sound minus Lisa Allen by a convincing 26-0 score. West Insurance beat Michael's Restaurant 20-0. O'Tooles was a no-show on Sunday, which gave JV another two points.

Burns Transport brought out the double barreled shotgun with a combination of disciplined offence and aggressive defense. Donna Brown halted the first Burns march with an interception. This faux pas did not appear to phase Burns as their defenders knocked down every Arnies pass within reach.

Danny Ursel scored two touchdowns before the half on running plays. Janet Arnold was good for a single and a field goal. Arnies had their work cut out for them later in the game too.

Caroline McMillan hit Kelly Cunningham for six to close the gap. Early in the fourth, Arnies aimed to come within striking distance. A pass was bobbled and Sheri Nairn snagged an interception for Burns. Another year goes by without a perfect record.

The second match of the day had Michael's Restaurant in their typical form - close but no cigar. Each potential scoring opportunity was halted by an interception or a dropped pass.

West spread the scoring around with TD's by Jennifer Palmer, Ruth Reid, and Roseann Harrison. Jeanine Larusso pulled in a two point convert while Kelly Peckford and Jennifer Palmer each had interceptions.

CIBC Chargers had a new look offence for the 12:30 start. It appeared to work as Mastalerz had little trouble finding her receivers. Noreen Atkinson, Carey Brabant, Leanne Fournier and Dianne Tooze all had touchdowns. Mastalerz converted twice.

Leanne Fournier posted her seventh interception of the year while Jodi Fournier had number two. Mary Lowry registered on the scoresheet for Mobile Sound with an interception.

The matchup of the week has to be at 10:00 a.m. when arch rivals, Arnies and CIBC go head to head.

Game stars: Jodie Fournier and Dianne Tooze (C), Burns Transport whole team, Kelly Cunningham (ABS), Jennifer Palmer (WI), Mary Lowry (MSS).

TYKE LEAGUE RESULTS

There were no surprises in the final week of Tyke League play. J. V. Clothing Blue Jays won both games to recover first place, but none of the contenders for fourth place - the disputed spot in the Silver Championship - managed to dislodge Beaver Lumber Mets.

Mike Reed D.J. Angels 6

Cory Constant's key bunt, and Jason Estevan's base running led Yankees' six-run offence while Erich Tremblay claimed a fly ball on defence; but Angels also landed six runners, leaving the teams tied as rain and darkness ended the game.

Halton Credit Union A's 2
A's pitcher Tommy Allen held

Expos to a single run in his two innings, assisted by key catches by Jason Higgins. Jamie Larocque stole home on a second base overthrow to account for one A's run.

Adam Stoyles at SS, Dan Whitton with a catch in right field, and Jesse Viens with a throw to Rob May at second, pinned down A's offence. In the final damp inning, both Simon Ford and Jesse Viens stole home to push Expos ahead by one.

J. V. Clothing Blue Jays 10
Beaver Lumber Mets 7

Andrew Peden, Mike Budgel, and Matt McMullen counted for RBIs as Jays eased out a win over Mets. Justin Hunt's pitching in the final inning quashed Mets comeback efforts.

Alan Gilmour's catch at second helped hold Angels to six while RBIs by Gilmour, Dylan Lee, Matt McMullen, and David Zeni propelled Jays to a total of 10.

Halton Credit Union A's 11
George and Dragon Yankees 8

Jeff Russell's strong pitching in the first two innings held back Yankees long enough for Warren Anderson (2B), Ryan Gledhill (3B, 2 RBI), and Nick Johnston (3B, 3 RBI), to start off A's 11 run win. Catcher Jamie Larocque with an out at home, helped hold Yankees to eight.
