Say: "I saw it in The Herald"

Yes, you can cook!

Do you think cooking is something that only adults can do? Well, think again! If you know how to heat up canned soup and make toast, you can cook more complicated things, like the recipes below.

Before you start:
 •Let an adult know that you're planning to cook.
 •Wash your hands.
 •Read the whole recipe, to be sure you understand all the directions.
 •Get out everything you will need — ingredients, pots and pans, measuring cups and spoons, potholders.

While you're working, make sure you use potholders or oven mitts whenever you have to touch a hot surface or pick up a pot or pan. And be sure to clean up after yourself as soon as possible. If you leave dirty dishes and pots and pans sitting around for someone else to clean up, you can be sure you won't be welcome in the kitchen again for a long time!

PIZZA PIZZAZZ POACH
 1 can (8 oz.) pizza sauce
 4 eggs
 2 English muffins
 1/2 cup shredded mozzarella cheese
 Grated parmesan cheese
 •Pour the sauce into a small skillet that has a cover. Set it over medium heat.
 •When the sauce starts to bubble, break the eggs, one at a time, and let them slide into the sauce.

 •Cover the pan and cook until the eggs are done as you like them, about 5 to 7 minutes.
 •While the eggs are cooking, split and toast the muffins.
 •Put the muffin halves on plates. Spoon an egg onto each.
 •Top with sauce and sprinkle with each cheese.
AS-YOU-LIKE-IT FRENCH TOAST
 4 eggs
 1/2 cup milk
 4 slices bread
 2 tablespoons butter
 Applesauce, jam, syrup, confectioners' sugar or ice cream
 •Break the eggs into a pie plate or pie pan. Add the milk. Beat with a fork until well mixed.
 •Melt the butter in a large skillet over medium heat. Push it around with a pancake turner so it covers the bottom of the skillet.
 •Dip a slice of the bread into the egg mixture and let it stand a little while (count to 30). Turn it over so it gets a dip on the other side. Put it into the skillet.
 •Do the same with the other slices.
 •Cook until they're nicely browned on the bottom. Turn them over with the pancake turner to brown the other side.
 •Put each piece of French Toast on a plate and choose a topping.
