Georgetown Chrysler Raiders excited and delighted hometown fans during a 10-3 thrashing of Royal York Rangers Saturday in the team's season opener at Georgetown's Gordon Alcott Memorial Arena.

Shortly before game time, the Raiders were honored by the OHA with organization of the century.

The powerful offence and strong goaltending by the Raiders showed fans the spirit of competition is still alive in the Georgetown Junior B hockey club.

Ben Henrich was outstanding in net for Georgetown.

While the Rangers took a 1-0 lead into the second period, he stopped many offensive attacks that frustrated Ranger forwards and amazed Georgetown fans.

The Raiders took over in the second with six unanswered goals including two from Scott Humber.

Raiders managed to keep themselves out of the penalty box for most of the first two periods which was a big part of the success.

In the third, it was Joe Kim and Bill McDonald's turn to shine. Joe scored two goals and assisted on another while Bill helped set up two others. Raider's goaltending remain strong until the end and the Rangers were able to score only two more goals.

Other goal scorers for Georgetown were Peter Perrone, Charlie Humber, Ian Ellis, Kevin Rutledge with two, and Dave Osborne.

"It was a good win for us but we have to keep it in perspective in that Royal York is a new team and they have a lot of improving left to do," explained Raider head coach Charlie Hanman. "It was nice that a lot of our players could get on the scoreboard. It was a good start."

Raiders also lost a close 5-4 game against the Streetsville Derbys Sunday in Streetsville.

Raiders will try to make it two for two at home this Saturday against Ajax, 8:30 p.m. at Gordon Alcott Memorial Arena.
