Trumpet & FRIENDS FUNSTUF

TRUMPET'S FATHER WAS THE FIRST TO SEE HIS LOST LITTLE BOY RETURNING HOME!

THEY HAD SEARCHED SO LONG, THEY HAD ALMOST GIVEN UP.

TRUMPET, SOON TOLD THEM HOW HE AND CHICKLET HAD GONE OFF IN THE BALLOON WITHOUT MEANING TO. HE TOLD THEM HOW THE STORKS HAD LED THEM HOME SO THAT THEY COULD COME LIVE WITH THEM.

...YOU TOLD THE STORKS WHAT? SAID HIS FATHER IN A SURPRISED BUT HUSHED TONE. YOU SHOULDN'T HAVE TOLD THEM THAT.

Next Week. WHY NOT?

What does Thanksgiving mean to you?

MARK MILLS, 9, GRADE 5, PARK PUBLIC SCHOOL: "It means giving thanks for your family and friends and for all of the nice things we have."

LAURI MacCARTHY, 9, GRADE 4, PARK PUBLIC SCHOOL: "It means meeting and sharing with family members. It also makes me think of a big turkey dinner."

Allan Humberstone, 7, GRADE 2, PARK PUBLIC SCHOOL: "Having lots of love for your family and giving thanks for all the food you receive from your mother."

Canadarn!

People in small towns generally don't mind if you keep your life private - so long as they know all about it.

Many people were so fed up with this hot, sticky summer that windshield scrapers and jumper cables were regarded as nostalgic keepsakes.

Many young children are terrified beginning school. Maybe it's because they realize that after spending the next decade in a classroom they'll go to a job interview to be told, 'Sorry, you have no experience.'

This is the time of year when farmers look out onto their crops and calculate how much the insurance company will pay.

Experts are always saying let your money work for you. Most of us, though, do all the work, and the money relaxes.

Not to say Canadian cities are boring, but they do remind visitors of shopping malls with live-in customers.

Free trade negotiations with the U.S. and Mexico are proving to be tough. It might be an idea to let some seven or eight year olds take on the job for us. After all, they go off to school with egg salad sandwiches and celery sticks and make even trades for candy and pop.
