Raiders handed 5-1 loss by Milton Merchants

By STEVEN LeBLANC
 Herald Sports Editor

The Georgetown Chrysler Raiders remain in fifth place after a two game split last week with a strong 10-3 victory over Ajax Tuesday evening and a 5-1 beating Friday night at the hands of the Milton Merchants.

Tuesday's contest saw Georgetown jump ahead to a one goal lead in the first when Peter Perrone put one past Ajax's netminder at 15:29. Ajax responded with a goal of their own three minutes later but at 9:34, Raider Bill McDonald scored and Georgetown took a 2-1 lead into the second.

The Raiders exploded for five goals in the second period, from Rob Doucette, Scott Humber, Ian Ellis, Peter Perrone, and Trevor Elinsky. Elinsky's goal came with one second remaining in the second.

Georgetown increased lead in the final period with two goals by Trevor Brandt and Duane Lewis. Ajax were able to hit the scoreboard twice in the third but with another Raiders dinger by John Ventresca, Georgetown skated to an easy win.

Friday's game was a complete turn around for Georgetown, although the Raiders played a strong offensive game against Milton, they were simply unable to find Milton netminder Jason Chipman's weak spots and fell 5-1.

Milton were able to rack up a two goal lead by the end of the first with goals by captain Shawn Healey and Mike Murray, who blasted a successful shot past goalie Carmelo Guilero.

Milton kept up their strong defensive game during the next two periods and added to their lead with a goal from Joe Pedulla in the second and two third period goals from Clancy Seymour.

Georgetown was determined not to be shut out by Milton and with less than five minutes remaining Kevin Rutledge scored on the powerplay. Scott Humber and Hendrick Wingenbroth assisted on Georgetown's only goal.

The Raiders will attempt to move up the Junior B ladder tonight in Royal York and Saturday evening at Gordon Alcott Memorial Arena against Brampton.

Raiders winger joins Sabres

First year Raider player Dave Osborne has left the Junior B club and joined the Acton Sabres, the Herald learned last weekend.

Osborne, a 17-year-old defencemen, left winger, played with the AAA Hurricanes (Major and Minor) last season. The Georgetown teen attends Acton High School.

According to sources close to the Sabres, Osborne had been considering changing teams for two weeks prior to the move and met with Raider management Oct. 28 to discuss his interests in playing with the Sabres.

Osborne was played in both Sabres' games this past weekend. He will be a welcomed addition to Acton's defence, which has been rather shaky this season.

Sabres score overtime victory

The Acton Sabres' up and down season continued last weekend with an exciting overtime win against Fergus Friday night and a 7-2 pounding by Wingham Sunday evening.

It looked as though Acton would lose another home game early on Friday evening as Fergus ended the first with a 1-0 lead and scored first in the second.

The Sabres rallied for three unanswered goals in the second period, starting at 16:35 when Mike Sutherland found the mark with assists from Jim English and Adam Hilts. English and Hilts followed up with goals of their own.

Fergus was able to net one more to tie the score at three by the end of the second.

Acton took control of the final period. Hilts scored another at 9:02 and Steve Henderson put one past Fergus netminder Dean Bower at 8:48.

It looked as though Acton would walk away with the win until 2:10 when Brad Oakes set Jeff Tomlinson up for the first of two goals. The pair net their second at 1:33 to send the game into overtime.

The Sabres lost their season opening in overtime against Hanover and were determined not to let it happen again. Both teams had good scoring chances by at 4:29, Jim English banked one in to end the game.

Sunday's game was not much of a contest compared with two night earlier. Acton was able to score two goals - one at 15:31 of the first and the other at 19:45 of the second.

Wingham kept the Sabres at bay with strong defense and goaltending and with a second period explosion of four goals, the team walked away with an easy win.

The Sabres will try to make it three for three at home this Friday when they face off against Brussels at 8 p.m. at Acton Arena.

Hurricane Hockey

Midgets crush Burlington 8-2

In their only league encounter this week, the Hurricanes ran rough shod over Burlington 8-2. Mike McPhail led the offence with the hat trick and was supported by Ken Kosziwka with a pair.

Single tallies were registered by Randy Bond, Tim O'Driscoll and Jason Cole. Cole, returning from the injured ranks, added two assists to his night's output.

David White, was solid in goal for the Hurricanes, playing his fourth straight game while his goaltending partner Kevin Gale is on the injured list.

The midgets took to the road on the weekend participating in the Oshawa Tournament and although they returned without any hardware, did display that they are capable of contending for major championships in the midget level.

In their first game, the Hurricanes carried the play to St. Catharines only to be thwarted by goaltender Bradon Ziraldo.

In a span of eight minutes in the second period, St. Catharines scored eight unanswered goals. Anything that could go wrong did and after the onslaught, Halton then took control again but were once again thwarted by the netminder.

Ken Kosziwka broke Ziraldo's shutout bid. In game two, the Hurricanes surrendered two third period goals to Team Toledo as the teams skated to a 3-3 tie. Mark Elkins, Ken Kosziwka and Ian Davidson found the mark for the Hurricanes.

Their next opponent was Hamilton Longshoremen, last year's Ontario Midget Air Canada top representative. Halton rose to the challenge with a solid 3-0 win as Kevin Gace registered the shutout. Jamie Janjevich led the offence with a pair of goals and Mike McPhail added a single.

The Hurricanes then faced off against the undefeated home team, Oshawa. The game saw sawed back and forth and after two periods, Oshawa carried a 2-1 edge to the dressing room, compliments of two power play goals.

Jim O'Driscoll notched Halton's lone goal in the first period.

Needing five goals in the final period to advance to the playoff round, Halton left their defensive assignments to press for goals and Oshawa capitalized with three late markers to seal a 5-1 victory.

The Hurricanes return to league action with a road trip to Chinguacousy before returning Sunday evening at Thompson Arena to host Chinguacousy in a return match looking to improve on their 8-3-1 league record.
