Credit Valley Artisans plan annual Christmas sale

By MARY ROWAN
Herald Special

Now that the weather has turned cold and snow looms on the horizon, you can't hide from the fact that Christmas is just around the corner. Hard to believe that in just over one month, your relatives and friends will be opening those carefully chosen unique items you purchased at the Credit Valley Artisans Annual Christmas Sale.

This year's sale will be held November 16 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. (yes, that's this Saturday) at Cedarvale Cottage in Cedarvale Park, Maple Ave. at Main St. in Georgetown. Admission is $1.

Cedar boughs and red ribbons will greet those entering Cedarvale Cottage. The Christmas tree will be overloaded with hand-made ornaments just waiting to be taken home for the holidays.

Some of our members artwork and creations can only be purchased at a Credit Valley Artisan sale. So you can be sure to find a unique present for everyone on your list with the knowledge that no one else will be buying one like it, unless of course your relatives live in Georgetown too. There will be a large variety of weaving, pottery, stained glass, watercolors, oil painting, prints and crafts of every variety.

For those with a sweet tooth, there will be a bake table with many delights to tantalize the tastebuds. Hot apple cider and coffee will warm you up on the inside.

Raffle tickets can be purchased at the sale and will give you a chance to win an acrylic mural painted by members of the Palette and Pencil Club or a handwoven table runner and pillow woven by the Heritage Handweavers, or a stained glass hanging of an orchid by the Stained Glass Crafters or a glazed footed fruit bowl hand built by the Potters and Sculptors. Each prize represents a guild of the Credit Valley Artisans.

So stop by the Credit Valley Artisan's Christmas Sale this Saturday and start the festive season off right. All our items are GST free.
