

Locations now established for food donations

By KEN BAKER
Herald Special

In an atempt to reach a greater number of contributors to this year's Georgetown Santa Claus Parade Food Drive, the Halton Hills British/Canadian Club has established several drop-off locations for those wishing to make a donation of a new unwrapped toy and/or non-perishable food items prior to the Nov. 30th parade.

Downtown, donations can be made at Municipal Trust at the corner of Main and James St. In the east end of town, Miller Scottish Bakery, at 330 Guelph St., will accept contributions. For those living outside of town, donations can be left at the Terra Cotta General Store.

Retailers or groups who wish to make a contribution can arrange for a pick-up by contacting Dave Rutherford at 873-2934 or Ken Baker at 877-0939 weeknights after 5 p.m.

As was the case last year, donations will still be accepted before and after the Nov. 30th parade by members of the British/Canadian Club; joined this year by the big cats and volunteers of The Endangered Animal Sanctuary, who will be accompanying the G. Kent double-decker bus in the parade.

The fast approaching Xmas season should be a joyous season for all. For many families and seniors trying to make ends meet during tough economic times, it can be a time of added stress, a time of unfulfilled children's wishes and yes; even in our community; a time of empty stomachs.

In the true spirit of Christmas the Halton Hills British/Canadian Club encourages everyone to do their part; in whatever way they can; to make this season a little bit brighter for everyone. There really is no better gift than the gift of giving.

Wedding bells

Knox Presbyterian Church, Acton was the setting for the wedding of Bernice Jean Pollock, daughter of Ronald Pollock of Owen Sound and Audrey Patchell of Guelph, and Timothy Roland Height, son of Roland and Peggy Height of R.R.1 Acton. Rev. Craig Crier officiated for the service and Ted Hansen was the organist. George McGaffin of Milton was her maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Christine White of Rockwood, the bride's step-sister, Cheryl Nelsen of Hanover and the groom's niece, Jennifer Wilson of Waterdown. The best man was Dave Morrison of Guelph and the ushers were Charles Vanitem of Acton, the bride's uncle, Paul Patchell of Tara, and the groom's nephew, Ron Woolley of Guelph. Following a reception at the Royal Canadian Legion Hall, Guelph, the couple enjoyed a Caribbean cruise. They are making their new home at R.R.1 Limehouse. (Doug Bokton photo)
