

Hustlers move ahead with industrial league lead

Sharing the first division lead of the Industrial League was short lived. Hustlers drew away from Gasketman Cutters as the results unfolded. Not only that - Steeprock overtook Westenders for third place. Ensigns move into fifth place leaving Acadian Pools, High Rollers and Aces behind, not by much however.

The second division leapfrogging continues below leaders, Panthers. Inter County Hotshots, Taxmen, Independents, Firemen and Bandits follow in sequence.

Husters 8 Acadian Pools 1, High Rollers 2 Westenders 7, Ensigns 6 Aces 3 and Steeprock 6 Gasketman Cutters 3, the last result being a bit of a surprise on even allowing for 'Rocks' strong showing in recent weeks. Panthers 8 Bandits 1, in the first versus last place encounter; Inter County 6 Independents 3. Firemen 2 Hotshots 7 and Taxmen sat out.

Gord Inglis scored 129 and 100 with Rob Quinton firing 124. Hank Van Gogh opened 5, closed 1, scoring a ton opening. Cam Herman and Todd Axford shot tons. Bill McCartney scored high with 108. Gord Bottoms opened with 114, Jim Franks with 100 and Jim Watson with 135 (just missing the lead in high open by 2). Bruce McCartney and George Powell each opened 3 and Bryan Turner closed Bandits' single win. Paul Kavanagh opened 6 and shared closes with Al Gardiner with 3 each.

Terry Hancock opened 3 and team mate Rob X scored 123 and two tons. Joe Cairns had another strong match with 6 starts, two finishes, 120 and three tons. Jim Fisher lent a hand with 3 closes. Larry Conium had 5 opens and Tim Field closed 91 in a losing cause. Beau Beaumont had 6 starts and 3 finishes with three tons or over. (Almost a return to form). Rod Beaumont closed two and shot three over a ton. Cutters' Mark See opened three, one with 101 and scored 135. Rick Harden assisted with two 140s. Paul Kirby opened 2, one of 92, and scored 140 and Marty Wheeler scored 114 with a finish. Lloyd Westlake opened 3 and Dean Hancock and John Burke each opened 2. Roy Rudiger, quiet for a week or two, scored 156 and began 5 and finished 2. Harry Bottoms also finished well, with 2.

In the Halton Youth League, Jason Mercer leads the pack in points scoring with 19. He is four ahead of Tommy Allen and Jim Corrigan.

Young master Allen has the high score to his name also at the present with 124. High finish belongs to Corrigan with 63 and Justin Penfold still the baseball high with 26.

Other players near the top are Kyle Hancock, Jamie Schell and Leanne Luck. Remember, O'Toole's for youth darts at 1:00 p.m. until 3:00 p.m. on Sundays under the watchful eyes of Terry Hancock and Dave Scutt, leaders.

Incidentally, coming up on Sunday, 8th December at the Legion, is the annuka members (Legion that is) Doubles tourney. Registration from 11 until 12 at a cost of $2 per player.

Boys place first, girls take fifth in weekend tournament

By CHRISTINA LANE
Herald Special

We would like to congratulate the combo teams who competed this past weekend. The girls team consisting of April Everingham (bantam), Jennifer Doyle (junior), Sharon Shapcott (senior) and coach Debbie Hole bowled at Brampton Bowl on Saturday, November 16 and placed fifth. The team came up positive behind Brampton team no. 2 with a plus 437, Hopedale a plus 265, Brampton no. 1 a plus 217, Brampton no. 3 a plus 181 and Georgetown a plus 154.

As for the boys team, they came up with an astounding finish of first place. The boys bowled in Oakville on Sunday. The happy bowlers were Chad Conrad (bantam), Kevin Shap-cott (junior), David Leslie (senior), and coach Brinley Hole. The team bowled a plus 295.

In league play this past Thursday Jason Dinney bowled well over his 126 league average. He averaged a 164 for three games. Just falling short of 100 pins over his average, Jim Norton bowled a 254 single. High triples for this past Thursday were: Rob Harrison (703) 244, Joe Robichaud (697) 251, Christina Lane (286) 688, Tonya Morris (254) 662, Christian Gravelle (308) 659 and David Leslie (228) 636.

Weekly curling results

Recreational curlers were back at it on Thursday, November 14th at North Halton.

Game of the week honours go to The Sign Shoppe Sliders skipped by Al Moore and the Rink Hounds with Dave Dunlop calling the ice.

With the Hounds up 7-5 coming home and Dunlops last rock sitting partially covered in the four foot, Moore slipped his last shot just past the guard for the takeout and scored three for a come from behind 8-7 win.

Other action saw Tom Reed's La Guys come back with a big end in the sixth to pull away from Miki and the Rolling Stones.

Brad Smith's Wingnuts made their move in the seventh, taking four to defeat Kendale 8 Enders.

Barry Dunlop and his Rockers upset 3 Men and a Skip big time, stealing the last five for a runaway victory.

Fridgidaire picked up their third straight win, putting a killer frost on Arnolds Greenhouse and the Ruby Begonias.

In other late games Ken Irwin's Work That Body foursome worked over the Senators to join Fridgidaire in the undefeated ranks, and the Hackers made a run at Mark Hyttinen's Hogliners but were unable to penetrate a wall of seven rocks in front of the house and were doubled 6-3.

Don't forget to sign up for the November 24 Bonspiel. Bring a friend. Good curling.

Superhero madness

It was comic craziness at the Sport Card and Comic Book show Sunday at Gordon Alcott Arena where collectors like Nat Johnston of Georgetown met with vendors such as Garry Spurvey (right) owner of Legends of Superheroes to swap and buy cards and comics. The show was put on by Sports Cards Promotions, a local business which will put on a similar show in December. (Herald Photo)
