

ATHLETES OF THE WEEK

GEORGETOWN HIGH SCHOOL

ANDREA HERNER, a grade 10 junior swimmer, had an outstanding day at G.D.H.S.'s second swim meet last Tuesday. She took first in the 50m backstroke and 100m Intermediate Medley and helped her team to a first place finish freestyle relay and medley relay.

MATT BRAIN, a grade 10 junior swimmer, had a personal best last Tuesday, placing second in the 50m freestyle race at G.D.H.S.'s second swim meet this season. In addition to this, he helped his team win the junior boy's medley relay.

McCauley's ladies basketball Killer C's A-team remain on top

The Killer C's and A-team remain tied for first in the McCauley Ladies Basketball League after their respective victories last Wednesday.

In the blow out match of the week, the Killer C's rolled over Time-Ins 96-36, a record high scoring so far this season. Killer C's power forwards Chung Kim, Charlotte Prevost, and Carolyn Stewart led the scoring with 20 points each. The team's offensive attack was rounded out with 16 points by both Anita Stankus and Michelle Robinson.

Heather Lawrence put in her usual outstanding performance, racking up 22 points for Time-Ins. The team continues to lose however, because the team offensive contribution remains a solo effort.

Tied for first with the Killer C's, A-team made easy work of the game against Time-Outs, pounding the last place squad 40-14. A-team stars Linda Robson and Judy Spear led the way with 14 and 10 points respectively and received solid defence from A-team guards.

Both A-team and the Killer C's have lost just a single game this season.

The game of the week belong to the match up between the Green Hoosiers and Slammers. The Green Hoosiers, having pulled off the first major upset of the season by trimming the Killer C's 56-50 the week before, were determined to keep their winning streak alive and despite Slammers hustle and solid defence, managed to walk away with a 41-36 victory. Penny Wright led the winning team with 10 points. Tracey Yorke chipped in seven points of her own and Wendy Wilcox, Lisa Bell, and Corinne Buisman netted six points each.

Ladies club bonspiel leads off female curling season

By ELLEN BURNS
Herald Special

Well, my friends, we are now well into our 1991-92 curling season and it's about time your "good news" reporter got down to business and spread some of North Halton's "good curling news."

We are very happy to boast that we have at least 20 new members and some who have returned after a year or two's rest. This makes for a lot more fun, especially in the Mixed section.

To lead off our year's activities, the annual Glad Robinson Ladies In-Club Bonspiel was held on Saturday, Nov. 23rd.

This spiel is held in honor of a great lady who curled at this club for many years until she was well in her 80's and has been running since 1975. We hold it early in the season and encourage new curlers to join in, if possible, to introduce them to this great sport.

The Trophy winning teams was skipped by Karin Henderson with Mae Cartwright and Karen Markham, Sandy Peir played vice in the first game and Gail Layton played second in game no. 2. In second place was Alice Frazer, Brenda Smith, Tama Donohue and Nancy Gibson. The points were 34½ and 33½. Draw prizes were won by Sandy Peir, Barb Abrey and Nancy Schultheiss.

Many thanks to Theresa who worked very hard to arrange the spiel, and to Erica Thompson who very ably took over when the cold and flu bug caught up to Theresa.

Two North Halton Ladies teams, skipped by Mary Wands and Marg Geddings, have entered the District Inter-City competition, which began on Nov. 1st. There are 12 teams involved from Orangeville, Elmira, Guelph, Acton and North Halton. Our final trophy day will be held on Dec. 6th in Orangeville with games, lunch and prizes. It is a great way to get the season started to meet lots of curlers. The team of Alice Frazer, Theresa Smith, Enid Muir and Gert Shortill competed in Bayview's 2-day Bonspiel early in November.

February 1st is the day set for the Wee Lassie Bonspiel, so Ladies, please put a circle around that day in your new 1992 calendar.

North Halton Ladies curling member Mary Wands takes aim at her desired target during last weekend's Glad Robinson Ladies In-Club Bonspiel. Ms. Wands and partner Marg Geddings are also part of District Inter-City Curling competition which began Nov. 1. (Herald Photo)
