

For Steve & Nina

G/S Television

Retirement party

To those residents who have bought any audiovisual equipment in town, Steve and Nina Pallichuk are probably easily recognizable. The two owned and operated G&S Television on Guelph Street in Georgetown for 33 years. To celebrate the couple's recent retirement from the business, approximately 150 friends and relatives held a party Saturday for the couple at Holy Cross Church Hall on Maple Avenue. (Herald Photo)

Legion bazaar

At Georgetown Royal Canadian Legion Branch 120 Ladies Auxiliary Annual Bazaar Saturday, (Left to Right), Wendy Goodhew and Marion McGugan show that with a little imagination this teddy bear Christmas tree ornament is perfect as a earring.

New municipal officials greeted

Re-elected town councillor Rob Heaton and newly elected councillor Gail Rutherford (left) are greeted by Brent Kearse and Janis Fread of the Halton Hills Tourism Committee Thursday afternoon during a reception for the new municipal officials at Jack Tanner's Table in Acton. The reception was sponsored by the Tourism Committee. (Herald Photo)

Re-elected town councillor Rob Heaton and newly elected councillor Gail Rutherford (left) are greeted by Brent Kearse and Janis Fread of the Halton Hills Tourism Committee Thursday afternoon during a reception for the new municipal officials at Jack Tanner's Table in Acton. The reception was sponsored by the Tourism Committee. (Herald Photo)

Leaders in training

North Halton District held a Part 1 training course for Leaders in the Scouting movement and participants included: Paul Alexander, Frank Amaral, Mary Lou Barber, Bonnie Boyko, Doug Collins, Douglas Edey, Don Finnie, Terry Gordon, Nancy Hall, Nancy Jackson, Brian Lackey, Bruce Leonard, Delmar Lloyd, David MacLeod, Peter McKeown, Steve Megarrell, Peter Moss, Nancy Rusak, Don Ritchie, Wendy Sheppard, John Stanley, Debbie Tiptle and Debbie Wilkinson. (Photo submitted).

North Halton District held a Part 1 training course for Leaders in the Scouting movement and participants included: Paul Alexander, Frank Amaral, Mary Lou Barber, Bonnie Boyko, Doug Collins, Douglas Edey, Don Finnie, Terry Gordon, Nancy Hall, Nancy Jackson, Brian Lackey, Bruce Leonard, Delmar Lloyd, David MacLeod, Peter McKeown, Steve Megarrell, Peter Moss, Nancy Rusak, Don Ritchie, Wendy Sheppard, John Stanley, Debbie Tiptle and Debbie Wilkinson. (Photo submitted).

Gone fishing

While many parents browsed among the several craft booths on display at the Georgetown St. John's United Church Christmas Bazaar, last Wednesday, in the Indoor Mall on Guelph Street, children such as Marnie Michalak, 13, had fun at the fish pond booth. All money raised from the bazaar goes towards church activities. (Herald Photo).