Remember lost comrades as Christmas season approaches

P.R.O. SHARRON BARKER
Acton Branch

With Christmas season approaching remember our vets and families.

During the past year we have lost Comrades in the Branch and Auxiliary. Our sympathy to those families who have lost a loved one. Let us forget: Kathy Jensen, Joan McKnight, Bob Louttett.

The Remembrance Day was again successful. Thank you Ladies Auxiliary 197 for a lovely supper served following church services. The committee would like to thank comrades and the citizens of Halton and area who participated in the distribution of poppies.

Did you know: WWI 652,437 Canadians served: WWII 1,086,771 male Canadians served and 49,545 female Canadians served.

The Acton Royal Canadian Legion 197 Youth Education Officer Sharron Barker visited the schools who participated in the essay, poem, poster contest with certificates of appreciation. "Canadian Remembrances" and cash awards this past week.

Congratulations and we hope to see more entries next year from all Acton and area schools.

Thank you for doing our judging Mary Irwin, Helen Otterbine, Nan Hurst and calligraphy Pat Omera.
