The Herald, Georgetown, Ontario.

Dear Sirs:

At the close of this difficult economic year we would like to thank the Herald Newspaper for would like to thank the Herald Studio a success their part in making Al-Marah Studio a success story. The ads which were placed in the Herald were in part with the help of Craig Teeter a big boost for the sales we experienced with the placing of the ads. Our Name the Wolf Contest was a winner for sure with over 200 names entered for our perusal. There were so many wonderful titles and it was very difficult to choose from the innovative choices. Frozen Echoes seemed to fit the bill perfectly and the free print was won by Mrs. Pat Johnston. During the time we met the most friendly people in Georgetown who came in to try their creative hand at a title. It really was a lot of fun.

We at Al-Marah really felt that the Herald cared whether or not our business prospered, and the placement of our ad each week was so important to the success of our contest. Craig Teeter was so helpful and professional in his expertise that we are sure his enthusiasm brushed off onto us. So, with many other merchants in Georgetown who use the Herald for their advertisements we can whole heartedly say "It Works". We know for it has worked, is working and will work in the future for us. At our new location on Guelph Street we will be using the Herald in 1992 for our future advertisements. With many thanks and wishes for a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.
