Shop HALTON HILLS First!

Halton Hills Chamber of Commerce Manager
Doug Penrice agrees...

"I like shopping in Halton Hills because we don't have gigantic lineups. The small shops usually have low prices and the fact of knowing the people that work there, lets me enjoy shopping more".

Shopping locally saves jobs...

These are interesting times in which we live. It's times like these that communities need to pull together. Halton Hills merchants, service centres and industries go out of their way to be good citizens. Halton Hills businesses employ local people...they provide excellent services to all and they pay taxes to keep our community a place that we are proud to call home. It's the Halton Hills business people who support our service groups, fund-raising events, social and athletic events. Now...in these interesting times it's important that we pull together as a community. Think about it... shop Halton Hills first...support your community.

Support your community
