

Golden anniversary

Georgetown residents Jetta and Tom Rotz celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary with family and friends at the Georgetown Golf and Country Club Sunday. (Herald Photo)

Yuletide light show shines for seniors

Georgetown gets to light up for the seniors on Wednesday December the 18th. Close to 160 seniors are expected for the 13th Annual Kinsmen Seniors Tour of the Lights.

Kinsman Randy Schaffer will tour the town a few days ahead of the event to map out the route with the best Yuletide lights.

The Kinsmen have arranged three buses, the Activan and, if needed, some of the Kinsmen will take seniors in their cars.

The tour starts with pick ups beginning at 6:45 p.m. and the buses will all meet at the Delrex Plaza by 7:15 p.m. where they will be meet by Santa Claus and his Police escort.

After the tour is over the buses will return to St. Anrews United Church on the corner of Sinclair and Mountainview Road for tea, coffee and goodies. The Centennial Alumni Choir will be on hand to entertain and lead the seniors in carols.

Seniors will be picked up by the Kinsmen between 6:45 p.m. and 7:15 p.m. at the following locations.

- Preston's General Store
- Georgetown Legion
- Bennett Centre
- Kincourt
- Durham Street Apartments
- Sargent Road Apartments
- Delrex Smoke Shop
- Moore Park Plaza
- Silver Creek Towers
- The Sands
- Hall Road

For further information call Kinsman Randy Schaffer 877-7981 after 6:00 p.m.
