

Scarlett/Beaumont take doubles title for fifth straight year

By ALEX TOUGH
Herald Special

Last news of the week first this week. This evening at the Legion is the final league matches of the year in Industrial league action, next week is the annual Alf Otes contest, of four person teams. On Saturday the annual Fred Gilmer trophy for house members doubles was contested. For the fifth successive year the formidable pairing of Ron Scarlett/Beau Beaumont were the triumphant winners. Losing finalists were Dennis Thorogood/Jim Fisher. Strong semi-final pairs of Joe Cairns/Eric Fuller and Ian McDonald/Marty Wheeler gave the two finalists a run for their 'money'. Beaumont also fired 180.

During the proceedings, Thorogood fired 180 with 140s from Scarlett, Bill McCartney, self, Fuller and several 125s, 123s and 121s from various players, including the aforementioned. One lady, Pat X managed 120 with two darts. A good tourney, well organized by Ian McDonald, played in good spirit throughout.

Wednesday's Industrial league saw Gasketman Cutters draw closer to Hustlers with a sparkling 8-1 win over luckless Aces. All other first division results were 5-4, Hustlers over High Rollers, Steeprock over Ensigns and Westenders over Acadian Pools.

Inter County recorded the maximum, 9-0, over Bandits. Panthers 7-2 over Independents and Firemen 5-4 over X Taxmen with Hotshots sitting out, in the second division.

Hustlers lead the first by two from Cutters with Westenders and Steeprock sixteen behind. Panthers hold off the charging Inter County in the second by one. Taxmen are eight behind and Hotshots are not far away.

Bottom dogs are Aces and Bandits respectively. Laurie Hopkins shot 180 and joins Ron Scarlett, Rod Beaumont, Beau Beaumont, Roger Moore in the top club, so to speak. Moore has two maximums, Gord Bottoms took the lead in high finishes with 137.

George Powell opened 66, 62 and scored 118, lefthanded. Some of us know George has had to adapt to throwing lefthanded after problems with his more natural right hand. Ron Corbett scored 130, Alex O'Neil 121, Jim Carter popped five closes to go with a couple of tons. Tom Elliott opened three and scored 118. Ace Bailey and Rick Appleyard were on the ton up trail as were Gary Hardcastle and Graham Griffiths. Bruce Capricol had three opens, Laurie Hopkins had a nice opener of 110. Russ Deigle began three and closed one.

Paul Kirby opened 105 and scored 116, Brad Youmans supported with 140. Jim Carter opened five, Terry Hancock scored 121, Ron Scarlett began four, Rod Beaumont shot 140 and Erwin See 125. Dennis Thorogood fired 140, Brian Hicks 124 and Dan Fraser started five. John Burke opened three and Dave Beaumont topped up. Stan Rhynold opened five and Bruce Hope closed four.

Squash results

The ladies C Team received a lesson in humility when their opponents from the Skyline Racquet Club in Etobicoke managed to win their match 5-0 during their December 3rd encounter. Teen-aged members Kristy Lewis and Kristy Johnson lost in spite of their high fitness levels and spirited play. Janet Gorman and Gloria Sinclair played all the angles but still came up short in their tough 5-game matches. Sandy Lewis, the 'hitter' of the team, struck out on this occasion.

The D Team received an unexpected boost in the standings when their Brampton opponents defaulted their match. The Mens B Team received a bye and are practicing and plotting strategy for next week.

Bridge results

Georgetown Duplicate Bridge Club results from Monday afternoon at the Georgetown Legion were as follows:

Number one winners: Doris Barber, and Adele Glavicic.

Number two winners: Rene March, and Karol Tobiasz.

Number three winners: Elsie Whitham, and Norma Maynard.
