

McCauley ladies basketball

A-team head into the Christmas break with the lead in the McCauley Ladies Basketball League. Their 78-45 stomping of Time-Ins Wednesday evening gave them their tenth win of the season and a one point edge over the second place Killer C's.

The Killer C's continue to eye the top spot in the ladies basketball league with their 66-44 victory over Green Hoosiers. The Slammers netted their third win of the season, over Time-Outs 52-24.

A-team star Boo Tufford was the week's top scorer with 30 points. She was supported by power forward Judy Spear who scored 18 points. Time-Ins Heather Lawrence, who netted 25 points Wednesday night, continues to be the lone offensive threat on her team.

Killer C's had a well round offence Wednesday, Jennifer Halsal led the way with 14 points while Charlotte Prevost and Cheryl Greenly scored 12 points each. Despite the loss, Green Hoosiers had an emotionally high with Wendy Wilcox netting 14 points on her 50th birthday.

Green Hoosier forward Alice Ogden also had 14 points on the night.

Margaret Entwistle and Shanna Long combined for 36 points and led the Slammers to victory. Time-Outs continue to suffer on the offence. The team's top scorer Wednesday night was Melanie McCracken with 13 points.
