Stan Rhynold/Eddie Ebbinge win Ed Paterson Memorial Tournery

The year began with the Ed Paterson Memorial Tournament on Saturday, Jan. 4, at the George and Dragon. This was a doubles tourney and drew players from far and near, including the return of the 1990 winners, Manny Barbeza and Marlon Pascal from Brampton. Another Ontario top ten rated duo was Scott Gordon and Mark Hole, nephew of the Georgetown Holes, incidentally.

A fairly large turn out of players and spectators were early in evidence and some 56 pairings took to the boards around 10:15 a.m. The competition was in the usual main and consolation round format and played in a very sporting fashion.

This year's winners are Stan Rhynold/Eddie Ebbinge who came through a strong half of the draw to defeat visiting Trevor MacDonald/Doug Strepnic by 2-1 after losing the first game. MacDonald one of his three in the day 180s in the final. The final itself was exciting and some very competitive darts were thrown.

Consolation winners were Tim Bois and Bill Brown who defeated the family Luck Boys team of Ed and Dave Paterson 2-0 in another fine match.

Main round semi finalists were the pairings of Paul Kirby/Dave Scutt and Mark See/Brian Ward. The consolation semi finalists were Bruce Stevens/Alex Tough and Dan Abercrobie/Larry "Skinny" Hunt. Patti Johnson scored the ladies high score of 123 early in the competition.

Some 60 double door prizes were given away in open draw together with the around $1100 in prize money and other draws. The major sponsors were the George, of course, and United Distilleries, which donated cash, a 60 Ouncer of Scotch and many other items for the tournament. The distilleries rep, John Brandon, also donated a superb score chart which helped tremendously.
