

Love to Ski Club

Georgetown members of the 'Love to Ski' Club anxiously await a day of skiing Thursday before loading the bus. There are 39 members in this club from throughout Halton that travel to various ski

Melanie Jans leads ladies' team to gold

Inter-Provincial Ladies' Team Championship

The matches were held at Saint Mary's Sports complex in Halifax, from January 23rd to the 26th. Melanie Jans, from Georgetown, was on the Ontario team that competed among eight other provincial squads. The 3-member Ontario team was impressive in their 3-0 semi-final win over Manitoba.

They then out-pointed British Columbia in the finals 2-1 to win the title. Melanie had a good weekend, and won all seven of her matches, playing the No. 2 position.

Ladies' C Team

The ladies travelled to Mayfair Lakeshore in Toronto for their match on Tuesday Jan. 21st. Myra Britton and Marg Herz, playing No. 3 and No. 4 respectively, had a tough time and lost their matches 0-3. Ruth Kuchinad at No. 2, lost 1-3. Only the narrowest of margins spelled defeat for Janet Gorman.

After battling to a 2-all tie, Janet found herself down 7-8 in the fifth game. In spite of winning the serve back four times she finally succumbed, making it 7-9. Captain Sandy Lewis proved to be the class act of the Georgetown team. Not only did she play the No. 1 position but also managed to grind out a win with a long 5-game match. A recent commitment to a fitness regimen should further strengthen Sandy's play.

Men's B Team

On Wednesday, Jan. 22, the GRC squad was hosted by the Pine Valley Team of Woodbridge, currently No. 1 in the standings. The 0-5 loss suffered by the "wounded warriors" was an example of age and treachery not being able to overcome youth and skills, as all opponents were under 19 years old. Nevertheless, Boyd Hoddinott, Paul Strandberg and Cameron Ower each played some strong squash with plenty of winning rallies, to garner games, if not matches. Wayne Pakkala and Murray Jans were the other unwilling victims.

Sabres win streak ends at four

The Acton Sabres ended a four game unbeaten streak last weekend with two disappointing defeats, a 6-4 loss to Orangeville Sunday at Acton Arena and a 8-2 pounding at the hands of Hanover Friday in Hanover.

Acton took a lot of penalties Sunday afternoon which cost them to give up three powerplay goals. The Sabres kept the score even until the third period when Orangeville netted three tallies and skated away with the win.

Brian Rasmussen and Blair Breen led the way for Acton with two assists each. Scoring for Acton

Sunday was Jason Lucas, Paul Cummings, John Ventresca, and John Van Dam.

Acton was crushed Friday in Hanover. Sabre netminder Greg Powell was beaten up on early, giving up four goals, and was replaced by Mike Milner, who had a solid showing but gave up four goals in the final period.

Goal scorers for Acton Friday were Brian Rasmussen and Jim English.

Acton travels to Fergus for their last regular season contest Friday at 8:30 p.m. before heading into the playoffs.

Leaver PeeWees win last four games

The Leaver PeeWees won their last four regular season games and finished with a convincing 5-1 victory over league leading Chinguacousy.

On January 18-19, they journeyed through blizzard conditions to play in the 19th Annual Blenheim Tournament and won the consolation division. They lost the first game 3-2 to Stoney Creek. Halton had the edge in play but despite numerous chances, were thwarted by a good and sometimes very lucky goalie.

The next day Halton atoned for a loss against Waterloo in an earlier tournament by beating them 2-1 in overtime. In a mainly defensive game for the first two periods, Waterloo notched their first at 3:11 of the third. Davis, assisted by Peter Mashinter tied it up with three minutes remaining. The 10 minute overtime featured sparkling rushes by both teams while Jeff Langille was superb in net.

With a minute remaining and a scramble of bodies in front of the net, Matt "Boom Boom" Vervoorn blasted a shot from inside the blue line which nailed the victory.

They then beat Chatham in the consolation championship game.

Special mentions for defensive play go to defencemen Richard Trotter and Tom Baynton. Halton now plays Brampton in the OMHA best of five playoffs.
