Squash results

Ladies' C Inter-Club
The ladies claimed bragging rights last week, when they defeated their guests, Toronto Athletic Club 3-2. Marg Herz lost her match 0-3, in the No. 5 spot, but Janet Gorman proved that she is not out, and managed to win, at No. four, by a 3-2 score. Ruth Kuchinad, the No. 3 had a fierce struggle but was finally defeated 2-3. Myra Britton knew that she had to pull off a win, which she did, with a 10-9 score in the fifth game, while her teammates cheered and bit their nails. Buoyed by Myra's victory, Sandy Lewis in the No. 1 position was able to achieve a straight games victory over her hapless opponent.

Mens' B Inter-Club
The team did not have one of their stellar performances against Regency Racquets Club last week, as they were "bagged" 0-5. Wayne Pakkala and Boyd Hoddinott were the best of a bad lot, so to speak, and although both provided valiant struggles for their opponents, they were in the end defeated. Paul Strandberg, Allan Kogon and Bill Voisin completed the Georgetown ranks.

Halton League Style take over first in Halton Dart League

by ALEX TOUGH
Herald Special

League leaders, Halton League style, took the maximum number of games fourteen, from luckless Copper Kettle and are now 15 points ahead of second place Hollywood No. 2, themselves 10-4 winners over Hollywood No. 1. O'Tooles No. 3 move into third spot after their 10-4 win over Legion No. 2. Dropping into fourth place are George No. 2 with George No. 1 next in line. Rounding out the top seven are Timeout and Legion No. 1.

Timeout's Vic Lovell made the highest bonus points of the night with 13, Nick Thomas had 12 and Dave Nicholls 11 and Rob Marrows 10 followed. 180s were notched by myself and Colin Hicks, within moments of each other, mine quietly; Colin's boisterously. (So what?) Rob Marrows also scored 180. High finishes were also in evidence, Ian McDonald, 120; Dave Loewen, 100 and Wayne Eagles 104.

A mention to some of the less frequent names in the points scoring is next with 140s from Simon Entwistle, Bob Jarrett, Herman Rhynold, Roger Vanderham, Rich Rintjema, Derek Hedley, Cam Herman, Brock McEachern, Eddie Belder and Harry Bottoms.

Several players, top and less than top have recently spoken about the bonus points system. My answer has been mainly to take the 'issue' to their team captain to be voiced at league meetings. Should one look at the points standings closely, in deducting bonus points from the total, leaving the match points results some interesting facts arise. The leading two players,

Kirby and Dave Scutt would still be in first and second place respectively. However, third place would go to Jeff Henderson, who lies in 13th place, by virtue of not scoring as many bonus points as players ahead. Eddie Ebbinge lies ninth and would move to fourth and Stan Rhynold who lies fifth would drop much lower. Dan Abercromby lies 17th and would not appear in the top thirty! He has 108 bonus and 48 match points. Paul Kirby and Dave Scutt have most singles wins with 15 each, Rich Rintjema has most doubles wins, 15 (and he is in 32nd place) and Steve Foster, 68th; Jim Fisher, 78th and Mike Hillier 83rd have the most teams wins with 11 each. Interesting, isn't it?

The Industrial league had a short break from league play to hold the annual teams trebles competition. It was almost an Ensigns/Gasketman Cutters' benefit night as both teams provided the finalists in both main and consolation rounds, Cutters prevailing in each for the majestic double. Stan Rhynold, Eddie Ebbinge and Mark See pulled off the main championship over Al Murphy, Harry Bottoms and Bruce Stevens. The consolation winners were Bruce Hope, Rick Harden and Jeff Richardson. Maybe the draw made by president Jeff with my help had a lot to do with the way things turned out! The Rhynold combination eliminated some strong competition on the way in Westenders' Joe Cairns, Ray Ackroyd and Eric Fuller and earlier, Hustlers' Ron Scarlett, Beau and Rod Beaumont. The losing semi-finalists came from Hotshots, Independents, Westenders and High Rollers.
