

Alex is cool

Alex, who was a little startled by the camera flash, is actually a very friendly, docile cat who will conquer your heart, say animal technicians at the Acton Veterinary Clinic where Alex is being held for adoption. Alex was initially discovered as a stray by a person who took him in but didn't have enough time to spend with him. They dropped him off at the clinic where he was given his shots. Alex is a light grey and white tabby, is approximately three-years-old and is neutered. He's been at the clinic for one month already and needs a good home. If you're interested in adopting Alex, call the Acton Veterinary Clinic at 853-1450. (Herald Photo)

What really bugs you?

MATTHEW ELLIOT, 11, GRADE 6, MCKENZIE-SMITH MIDDLE SCHOOL: "I get annoyed when my dad sends me to bed early when I can't finish my supper. Also when another T.V. program interrupts my favorite shows."

DAMIAN BANYARD, 12, GRADE 7, MCKENZIE-SMITH MIDDLE SCHOOL: "That students can't come to school without someone teasing them about their clothes and teachers who give a lot of homework on weekends."

SHARON KEARSAY, 14, GRADE 8, MCKENZIE-SMITH MIDDLE SCHOOL: "My older brother, who will tease me about anything. Teachers who give too much homework also bother me."
