O'Tooles 2 enjoys comfortable lead in Halton Dart League

Here we go! An attempt to get things correct, for a change, considering the past few weeks, Yes, O'Tooles No. 2 lead the Halton League. The team is way, way in front of the chasing Hollywood No. 2, O'Tooles No. 3 and George No. 2, who are the only teams with a chance of catching up. George No. 2 have a match in hand, the only squad in the top half having played one match less. O'Tooles No. 2 have been very consistent, most of the time.

Alex Tough

Last week the leaders tied Legion No. 1, a rare slip on their part. George No. 2 took a 12-2 revenge over Copper Kettle No. 2 and George No. 1 fell to O'Tooles No. 1 by 4-10, a little bit of an upset.

Allan Cooper and Ian McDonald fired 180's. High finishes from Danny Drumm, 110; Al Murphy, 103; and Wayne Eagles, with 100 highlighted some of the points scorers. Mike Pepper's 14 bonus points led the way. Chris Scutt, 12, Dave Scutt and Bruce Stevens with 11 followed. High score was 160, from Mike Pepper, with Russ Hillier, 157 and Wally Klmsiak, 156 close behind.

The leading lass in the standings is Kim Smid with 102 points and lies 45th overall. Darlene Wheeler is not far behind with 101 points. June Norton had 95 and Shirley Penfold has 84.

Jim Corrigan continues to lead the youth section with Kyle Hancock, Teresa Mercer, Justin Penfold and Jamie Schell next in line. Michelle 'X' scored high with 115 and Philip Scutt notched a ton. Leanne Luck scored enough wins to move her ahead of Tommy Allen in the standings.

The Industrial league returned to league points matches in double headers format. Hustlers and Gasketman Cutters took ten points of fourteen to retain first and second place in the first division, Hustlers holding on to a three point lead. Joe Cairns moved into the first division high finish lead with a creditable 145 close out. Last week's second division leaders, Hotshots, tenure was shortlived with Panthers gaining sufficient to return to familiarity at the front. They have 89 points, two more than Inter County with Hotshots dropping into third place again. Bandits remain firmly entrenched at the foot of the second and Aces are six points adrift of High Rollers in the fight for last place in the furst.

High openers came from Beau Beaumont, 142; Ron Scarlett, 108; Graham Griffith, 112; Eddie Ebbinge, 120; Rod Beaumont and Paul Kirby each with 100 and Brian (Wild Thing) Ward with 105. 140s from Bruce Hope (2), Mark See, Beau Beaumont, Al Murphy, Dan Abercrombie, Hunter Carroll, Jim Charter and George O'Neil. Bill McCartney fired 138 and Gord Inglis 135, Gord Bottoms 125 and Bruce Capreol, Ted Nelson, Ron Scarlett, Harry Bottoms, Paul Kirby and Lloyd Westlake each scored between 120 and 125.
