

Improvements are ongoing at community centre

BY BETTY SOJKA
Herald Special

Sad news filtered through the village of the passing of Ellen Douglas, on Feb. 9th. Heartfelt sympathy goes out to her husband Stan. Mrs. Douglas had battled cancer for sometime. She will be greatly missed!

Special thanks go out to the Senior Choir. With earnings from the Robbie Burns supper, 20 card tables, and cutlery have been purchased for the community centre. The generosity of the Robbie Burns organisers is very much appreciated.

It didn't take long before the card tables were put to use, with the Euchre Night on Feb. 6th. It was rather a small attendance with only 6 tables being filled. Despite this, those that attended, had a nice time, and enjoyed a light snack of sandwiches and coffee. Thanks go out to Edith and Carl Volmar, Connie Walker, Jean Buston, and Karen Smith for supplying the delicious sandwiches. Angela Hoff was the winner of the high ladies, followed by Joyce Clarke. Scoring highest for the men's was Art Goddard, with Carl Volmar not far behind. Ed Tooke was the winner of the Booby Prize. The next Euchre is set for Feb. 20th starting at 7:30 p.m., at the community centre.

Come on folks, we have 20 tables to fill. It really is alot of fun! All calibre of players welcome.

Not only did the people playing Euchre get to play on new tables, but they were a few of the first people to see the bright new ceiling. Each of the tiles in the dance floor room have been replaced. The sheer whiteness, has improved the look of the room considerably. Work is ongoing in the basement. The walls have now been refurbished, and have had a coat of paint put on. Work is being concentrated on the kitchen this week. Other community centre news is the volunteering of Hilda Lee, and Christie Pollard to sit on the Hall Board, completing the number needed.

Last chance to get your tickets for the Valentine's Day dance happening this Saturday, February 15th, at the community centre. At $7.50 per person, tickets can be purchased from the Ballinafad General Store. Beat the February blah's! Come on out for a guaranteed great time!
