

Novice Tanners play in holiday hockey tourney

On Tuesday December 28th the Acton House League's Novice Division Georgetown Chrysler team entered a tournament in Erin at the Erin Center 2000. The tournament consisted of eight Novice House League teams from Acton, Erin, Hespeler and Mount Forest.

Acton met Erin in the first game and came out flying with two goals in the first period by Michael Jankowski. Acton took a 3 - 0 lead in the second with a goal by Roberto Ferraioli before the Erin team scored against Acton goalie Matthew Lantz. Jack Feibel closed out the scoring in the second on a pass from Jankowski. The third period saw three more goals by Acton from Ferraioli and Chase Aditajs with Jankowski completing the hat trick. It was a convincing 7 - 1 win with Lantz being named player of the game.

The next game was against another Erin team who earlier beat a second Acton House League team. This time, the opposition came out flying and took a two-goal lead mid way through the first period.

Acton fought back with a goal by Jankowski, assisted by Ferraioli, before the period came to an end. In the second period Acton was more focused and had goals from Aditajs, Ferraioli and a third maker in the period by Callum Pratt.

Ferraioli closed out the third period with his second of the game, and Acton won 5 - 2. Stay at home defenseman Matthew Mowat was named player of the game.

The Championship game was against Mount Forest who had beaten two teams from Hespeler to earn their spot in the finals. Again this game, Acton fell behind, 1-0 after the first period and down 3-0 before a goal by Jack Feibel gave Acton life. Both teams played hard and Acton's goalie Matthew Lantz kept the game close. Jankowski's aggressive play served him well in the first two games but he found himself in the "sin bin" with two body checking penalties late in the third and that sealed Acton's fate, and they came up on the short end of a 3-1 score. Goalie Matthew Lantz was again named the player of the game.

Another Acton House League Novice team, Giant Tiger, was also at the tournament in the Consolation Championship Finals facing Hespeler (Blue). Giant Tiger won the Consolation Championship 6-5 in overtime.
