

Devils Double Sharks

Acton Ladies Hockey resumed after the Christmas break and in the first game, DNR Contracting Devils doubled Active Choice Sharks 6-3. The Devils jumped to a 2-0 in the first period with goals by Lori McIntyre and Deb Evans. Josey Bonnette got the Sharks on the board from Janet Garton. That was as close as they got as the Devils took over with three consecutive goals to take a commanding lead. Christy Gedge, Carolyn Hill, Nicholl Spence and Deb Evans with her second goal, rounded out the scoring for the Contractors. Linda Vickery and Nicholl Spence had single assists while Carolyn Hill had two helpers. Daina McKellar and Dana Selby tallied for the Sharks.

In the second game Smooth & Trendzy Cougars blanked Acton Optical Lightning 2-0. Liz Holmes scored in the first period on an unassisted goal, which proved to be the game winner. The game remained close until late in the game when Tina McLeod scored an empty netter from Ute Cole. Jannette Jensen earned the shutout for the Cougars.

This Friday night at the 10 p.m. game, the DNR Contracting Devils visit Smooth & Trendzy Cougars. The 11 p.m. game features Acton Optical Lightning versus the Active Choice Sharks.

Shut out for AE Atoms

The getconnected Acton AE Atom Tanners travelled to Ancaster on the weekend to take on the undefeated season leader, the Ancaster Avalanche in their last match up in regular season.

The Tanners broke out in the first, dominating the ice, not allowing much game play in their end of the rink.

Jack Kennedy scored the first goal of the game, with the assist going to Devin Muise, exhilarating the supporting Acton fans.

The intensity grew in the second period. The Avalanche threatened with breakaways in the Acton zone, but the Tanners were strong, continuously shooting on the Avalanche net, and defensively clearing the puck out of their end. Kennedy is credited with the second goal of the game, unassisted, with 5:45 left on the clock.

By the third period, the Avalanche came alive, and relentlessly attempted to reclaim their undefeated status, but Tanner goalie Mathew Adkins would not allow it. The Tanners response to the Avalanche threat was the third goal of the game going to Muise, assisted by Michael Holmes, with the fourth and final goal scored by Muise with 2:18 remaining.

A shutout is sweet, but a shutout against a team that has not been defeated yet this season is priceless. Head coach Scott Holmes attributed the win to the incredible teamwork and determination shown on the ice. He told the team to hold their heads high, as each and every member of the AE Atom team is credited as "player of the game" to achieve the 4-0 shutout victory.

The Tanners travel to Fergus today (Thursday) to face Center Wellington, and will be on home ice for their final two games of the season Saturday, January 15 at 5:30 p.m., vs Arthur, and Sunday, January 16 at 12:30 p.m. where they hope to upset the second place Flam- boro team.

Novice Tanners unbeaten in 18

The Trendz Hair Studio Novice Acton Tanners won three more, to run their current winning streak to six, and their unbeaten streak to eighteen.

First up was a 5-1 win against the Caledon Hawks. Stuart Macdonald had a strong game scoring four times, while Evan Ashe added a single. Assists went to Nolan Cree (3), Thomas Holmes (2), Spencer Booth and Jackson Phillips.

Next was a close 2-1 win over the Orangeville Flyers. Macdonald again opened the scoring on a pass from Cree and Brett Hilt. Spencer Booth scored the second on a breakaway pass from his brother, Zach. The Orangeville goalies kept them in it, and the Tanners scored late, but some key saves from Owen Borges preserved the victory.

In the third game, Owen Kennedy and Cree scored two goals each and added an assist each in a 6-2 win over the Milton Winterhawks. Spencer Booth and Macdonald added a goal and an assist each, as well and assists to Ashe (2), Tristan Wight, Zach Booth, Brandon Hatt, Holmes and Hilt.

The Novice Tanners also entered a tournament in Hespeler against tougher competition, but held their own winning once (3-2 against Hespeler) and losing two close games (2-1 to Kitchener and 3-1 to Owen Sound). Goals were scored by Spencer Booth (3), Macdonald, Phillips and Kennedy. Assists went to Cree (2), Kennedy, Hatt, Gabe Rowsell, Matthew Geim and Spencer Booth.

The Novice Tanners final regular season home game is Sunday at 11:30 a.m., against the Dundas Blues.
