

ACTON SENIORS' RECREATION CENTRE

BY JULIE CONROY

Fifteen people have signed up for the dinner theatre on Friday, March 4. The show is a British Comedy "Nana's Naughty Knickers". If you are interested, please sign up as soon as possible. I will be asking people to pay and confirm in a couple of weeks.

The trip to Barrie last week for bingo and lunch was enjoyed by everyone who went. The lunch was excellent, and I heard comments from people who enjoyed the faster computerized version. You really needed to concentrate, but they did have the usual bingo in another room for those who wished a more relaxed game. Later in the afternoon, they went to Georgia Downs to play the slots. I did hear through the grapevine that we had several very happy winners. Luckily, they got home just as the snow was getting heavy, after an excellent day. They are looking forward to repeating this trip in the future. The winner of the 50/50 on the bus was Shirley Kruk.

At the last Bid Euchre game Frances Hogenbirk and Elma Braida both had mooners.

Seniors and their friends know how to let their hair down. We celebrated the New Year a little later this year. Everyone is so busy during the holiday season that Real felt it would be better to celebrate later in the month. Some people really got into the swing of things and came dressed up and ready to party. The Swiss Chalet chicken was excellent as usual, and everyone enjoyed dancing and listening to Juke Box.

Horse lovers, Michelle has a treat for you. On Tuesday, January 25 at 1 p.m. the movie featured will be Secretariat. The movie is the true story of the famous racehorse. In February, the movies will be every other Tuesday starting with February 8 at 1 p.m.

Please make a note on your calendar that the Acton Seniors Recreation Centre Annual General Meeting will be held on Wednesday, February 23 at 1:30 p.m. in the Community Hall. This is your chance to meet your board members, hear the plans for the future, and get any relevant questions answered.

There will be three vacant positions on the board. Two names have been nominated for the positions of Vice-President, and Fundraising Chair, but the position of Membership Chair is still open. If you would like to nominate someone, or have your name considered for a position please call nominating committee members Margaret Anderson or Donna Rowley.

The 50/50 was won by another hard working volunteer this week. June Fraser won $60.

e-book titles available

If you discovered a shiny new e-reader under the tree this Christmas and want to load some excellent e-book titles free of charge, the Library is the place to look.

The Halton Hills Public Library has many high quality fiction and non-fiction titles for all ages, including recent bestsellers and award-winners. If a title is not available, you can place a request, and be notified via email when it is available. Titles can be "checked out" for seven or 14 days.

All you need to access e-book titles is a Halton Hills Public Library card and a PIN. Your PIN is usually the last four digits of your home telephone number, but to verify, call 905-873-2681 ext. 2502. Please note that before you can add e-books, you need to download special software as per your e-reader instructions.

When you are ready to download your free e-books, go to the following website: <http://downloadcentre.library.on.ca>

This website has all that is needed to know to browse and check out e-books. The library recommends that you sign in before you start searching so that you can access the full range of titles owned by Halton Hills Public Library in addition to those titles jointly owned by public libraries throughout Ontario.

To sign in, click on "Login" at the top of the Download Centre home page. Choose "Halton Hills Public Library" from the list, and enter your full library card number and PIN.

The e-books available for downloading from the Library can be read on your computer, netbook, iPad, Sony reader, Kobo e-reader and smart phones. Unfortunately these e-books can not as yet be read by Amazon's Kindle. For a full list of all the compatible devices, please go to <http://www.overdrive.com/resources/drc/>

The library adds new e-book titles all the time, so check the download website often for the latest selection: <http://downloadcentre.library.on.ca>. Any questions? Call the Library at 905-872-2681.
