

Van Oosten advances in skills Olympics

Acton High School student Jon Van Oosten's Gold Medal win in the Architectural CADD (computer aided drafting and design) Halton Skills Competition advances him to the Provincial competition in Kitchener on May 3 and 4.

Last Thursday, over 800 Halton secondary and 350 elementary students participated in the 2011 Halton Skills

Competitions in Oakville.

Other Acton students who competed in the Halton competition included Cody Adema and Matt Goodfellow in Team Carpentry, David Barney in Digital Photography, Zachary Botelho in Cabinet Making, Kyle Bowman and Jakob Macpherson in Auto Repair, and Erika Stokes in Architectural CADD.

ACE SKILLS:
Acton High School student Jon Van Oosten earned a Gold medal at the recent Halton-wide Skills competition, and will advance to the provincial Skills Olympics in Waterloo in May. Van Oosten received his medal in Architectural CADD (computer aided design and drafting) from Halton District School Board Superintendent Jeff Blackwell in Oakville last week.
