OUR innovative 24-hr Mobile Supports for Daily Living (SDL) Program provides customized support services to seniors who require assistance in their activities of daily living to remain living independently in their own homes.

This exciting new Program has an opportunity for a talented FULL-TIME CARE COORDINATOR (Case Manager) who is passionate about providing exceptional customer service

The Care Coordinator's main responsibilities include:
• Developing trusting & supportive relationships with our clients
• Assessing their needs and developing customized care plans
• Assisting clients to access available resources
• Working with the program team to ensure the effective delivery of personal support services

In addition to your excellent communication skills and flexibility within a fast paced work environment, your experience includes:

- Degree or diploma in relevant field, plus 2 years of experience in human services, preferably as a case manager or a combined equivalent of education and experience.
- Performing eligibility/needs assessments (preferably using Inter-RAI CHA) and developing care plans based on client service requirements
- Comprehensive knowledge of seniors issues or issues related to aging
- Demonstrated computer skills. Experience with scheduling software and/or client record system desirable.
- Ability to work in effective collaboration with colleagues and referral sources
- Medical knowledge an asset

The Care Coordinator meets with clients in the community (Southwest Etobicoke, Mississauga and Oakville) and requires access to a reliable vehicle. Occasional evening or weekend meetings may be required to meet client needs.

Don't miss this exciting opportunity to join our leading organization.
