LNH seeks help—and offers help

Literacy North Halton (LNH) offers a 10-week computer workshop which has been developed specifically for adults who are seeking employment and have never used a computer before. Is that you? Classes run once per week, day and evening in three-hour sessions.

Tutoring programs are also available to assist adults with upgrading their reading, writing and/or basic math skills on a one-to-one basis or in small groups.

Tutor volunteers needed—Do you like to learn more about volunteering as a tutor? Training is provided. Call for training opportunities in your community.

LNH is seeking volunteer members to serve on the board. If you have an interest in adult literacy and experience serving on a non-profit board, this may be a good opportunity to serve your community. Financial and marketing skills are welcome. Call to request an application package, or visit www.literacynh.org

Dedicating the bells

Kyle Jones (left) and Rev. Nancy Rowe (right) join the Kennedy family (Leslie, Scott, Jonah, and Abbey) in a glass of lemonade and cookies at St. George's Church on Guelph St. as part of the celebration in dedicating a significant upgrade to the church's carillon system, which had fallen in disrepair. Jonah and Ashley held a lemonade fundraiser last summer while generous donations from the community added to the $4,700 raised to make the repairs.
