Bring your senior sweetheart to the GDSC Valentine's Tea

By FLORENCE RIEHL
Georgetown District Seniors Centre

Where did January fly to? It certainly ended with cold weather. Hang in everybody. Just a couple of months until spring!

The end of January means your 2009 membership is up. I know most of you have renewed, but there are always a few stragglers. You need a valid membership card to take part in our drop-in programs.

February is the month for sweethearts and valentines. With that in mind we are going to repeat the Valentine's Tea to be held on Thursday, February 11. Remember the fun you had last year? We are going to busy you with games, prizes and refreshments. Tickets are on sale for $3 at Reception. Try to wear something red. Fifth Avenue Jewellery will also be on sale.

Thanks to people who read this column and have come forth with some fundraising ideas. We are always on the lookout for new ways to raise money and have a good time.

The AGM is marked for Thursday, February 25. At noon, for $5 you will be able to purchase a sandwich lunch. The meeting will follow at 1 p.m. This meeting keeps you up-to-date on the accomplishments of the 2009 year and looks ahead to plans for 2010.

I have only four seats left for the St. Patrick's Day party at Carmen's Dinner Theatre in Hamilton. Bring a friend and join us. If you are interested, call me, 905-873-1210.

Remember to drop in and pick up your copy of the HillsView.

The Drama Club has a "Mid Winter Blues" luncheon coming up on Monday, March 8. They will be serving their famous stew. Cost $8. Tickets limited. Members and friends welcome.

Senior Men's Luncheon: will be held on Thursday, Feb. 11, 12 p.m. at Maple Ave. Baptist Church. Speaker will be Shell Lawr. All retired men are invited to enjoy a great lunch, an interesting speaker and good camaraderie for only $10. Info: Aid-an Kennedy, 905-877-6029.
