Volleyball

Georgetown's senior girls have yet to lose a match this season and continued their win streak by capturing top spot at the Victory Volleyball Top Gun Tournament Friday in Missis-sauga.

The 23-0 Rebels went undefeated in pool play and had a tough test in the final, prevailing over Etobicoke's Richview Saints 25-23, 27-25.

Basketball

The 5-4 Rebels are hoping to improve on their sixth-place standing in the HSSAA Tier I senior boys' division with games against Milton's Bishop Reding and Loyola of Oakville to close out the regular season this week.

Mitch Racinsky had 14 points for the Rebels last week in a 65-39 victory over last-place Iroquois Ridge.

Victor Thompson scored 22 points as the Acton senior Bearcats nearly upset the 8-1 Corpus Christi Longhorns last week, falling short 52-49.

Hockey

Jessica Cutting had all three goals for the Acton Bearcats in a 3-3 draw with visiting St. Thomas Aquinas last week in A/AA girls' division action.

"Some neighbours' hair-do's are like road-kill!"

Thank you Georgetown for making me your favorite Barber Shop and letting me do fine taxidermy repairs on some of your road-kill hairdo's! Why not stop in, get a trim, have a laugh and experience Paddy's fine techniques and silly "idears". And neighbours - Please let's remember the Georgetown Bread Basket and our very own neighbours in need. Thanks again Georgetown!

Sincerely, Paddy
