Southern sass, tears and charm fills the stage as five bank tellers speak their hearts in Mark Dunn's engaging play, Five Tellers Dancing in the Rain, presented by Georgetown Little Theatre.

Set in the breakroom of a small bank in Mississippi, this gentle drama eavesdrops on the conversations of women who have for too long defined themselves in terms of their rocky relationships with the men in their lives. It's a play about finding strength and self-respect through friendships with those who have been down that road before.

Directed by Carol Beauchamp, the play runs Feb. 11-13 and Feb 17-20, at the John Elliott Theatre. For tickets, call the Box Office, 905-877-3700 or online, www.georgetownlittletheatre.ca.
