SCOTTY
ONE IN A MILLION AND HIGH MAINTENANCE
Scotty was my baby who I had fro 12 and a half years. I got him from the shelter. He was a stray and one year old so I got to name him. He was my constant companion, my protector and my best friend. He was always giving me love and kisses, especially when I needed it.
Scotty was a real character and was always into mischief. Every thought of him puts a smile on my face even when I wanted to strangle him.
He was every bit the dog and was able to touch many peoples lives, not just mine for which I am proud to say.
As only Scotty could, he got himself into trouble again with eating whatever he saw; it was only after the vet informed me that he was suffering from cancer that I lost him. He never showed any signs of discomfort or pain. He protected me even up to the end.
I will love and miss you always Scotty and thank you for being there! I pass on to you the tears of joy and sadness you gave to Aunt Rachel and all the many other adopted aunts and uncles you touched.
I give many thanks to Liz, Ina and all the staff at th Georgetown Animal Clinic for all their love and support of Scotty.
Love, Mommy (aka Doreen)
