IN MEMORIAM

JACKMAN, Danny

A year has passed and it's still hard to imagine our world without you. A day doesn't go by when you're not in our thoughts. Some days we cry a little, others we laugh a lot. Our love for you will never fade away and we'll never forget what you taught each of us.

You were a Husband, a Dad, a Brother, an Uncle, a Godfather and a friend. We all miss your jokes, your music and your kindness.

We love you.

Dan Jr., David and Cecilia

SECCO, Victorino

February 20th, 1998

Thank you Secco for being you, There is so much that you did do, Like helping others was your way, In any time of any day.

I really miss you for your smile, And when we would talk for awhile, Secco, you always gave your best, May you be happy and at rest.

Love, Bet

JACKMAN, Danny

March 7th, 1950 - February 24th, 2009

If I could have one lifetime wish, One dream that could come true, I would ask with all my heart, For yesterday and you.

"May You Find Comfort in the Arms of the Angels"

Love Always, Roberta

Business of the month

Wendy Farrow-Reed (left), a director for the Halton Hills Chamber of Commerce, presents Debbie Mongiat, store manager of Country Reflections in Acton, with February's Business of the Month banner. In operation for the past 15 years under the ownership of Judy MacDonald, who was on vacation at the time of this photograph was taken, Country Reflections, has also recently begun offering spiritual and metaphysical well-being classes on the premises.

Big screen, big win

Rick Almeida (centre) of Georgetown was pleasantly surprised when he received a call saying he had won a 42-inch Samsung flat screen TV, in the 241 Pizza Contest— especially when he didn't realize he had entered. During the contest period, anyone ordering a pizza online was automatically entered in the province-wide contest, which concluded December 31. On hand to make the presentation were local Georgetown 241 Pizza outlet owners Arshad Baig (left) and Tausif Munir (right).
